Axford, 2004-06-24 The second edition continues to be a valuable source to printed music, music software, and Web sites useful to musicians, and includes interesting essays on the history of printed music, copyright laws, music theory fundamentals, and other topics. The Battle of the Five Spot David Lee, 2006 The Battle of the Five Spot is an engaging look at a milestone of jazz history. When the Texas-born saxophonist Ornette Coleman brought his quartet to New York's Five Spot Café in 1959, the music spurred a stormy controversy, and a struggle between old and new styles that has never wholly subsided. David Lee explores the debate around Coleman's innovation in terms of its relationships to social change and issues of power within arts communities, referring to such disparate sources as Norman Mailer (a Five Spot regular), composer Leonard Bernstein, and French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu. You may never listen to jazz the same way again!

"The Wood that Sings" Laurence Kaptain, 1992 To the people of the state of Chiapas, the marimba is both heard as a musical instrument and viewed as a cultural icon. Woven into the fabric of everyday life in the rugged and exotic land of southernmost Mexico, it is indeed difficult to walk down any street without hearing las maderas que cantan (the wood that sings). This monograph examines the heritage of the marimba, its repertoire and current performance practice, as well as the personalities past and present that have been exponents of this important Mexican musical tradition.
