Acuicultura marina mediterránea - producción, comercialización FUNDACIÓN ALFONSO, MARTÍN ESCUDERO, 2005-01-01 Este libro trata de introducirse en una de las vertientes más prometedoras, por el momento, de la industria acuícola, en uno de los escenarios en los que la industria española compite de modo intenso: la producción y comercialización de lubina y dorada en la cuenca mediterránea. Por eso, el hilo conductor del análisis contenido en este libro se apoya en la hipótesis de que el futuro de la industria española, que en la actualidad ve peligrar su liderazgo en el propio mercado nacional, no puede decidirse con acciones de ámbito local ni con una orientación exclusiva hacia el incremento de la capacidad productiva. La industria española de dorada y lubina, con un importante potencial de crecimiento, abre sus puertas a los mercados internacionales, y todo cuanto acontezca en estos afecta directamente a la industria nacional. El objetivo general de la investigación que ha dado lugar a este libro se centra en el estudio de la situación del sector de producción acuícola en España. Se ha desarrollado, en suma, un proceso de investigación multidisciplinar que ha permitido definir las ventajas competitivas de las que goza el sector en el caso español y, asimismo, determinar los retrasos en esta materia que pueden ser debidos a diferentes causas, desde las condiciones biológicas de producción hasta la absorción de tecnología de reproducción o engorde, pasando por la estructura empresarial del sector productivo o las condiciones de comercialización, etc. Con ello se pretende, tras el análisis de dichas condiciones competitivas, ofrecer alternativas en diferentes planos a los actores que de uno u otro modo participan en el sector con el fin de mejorar las condiciones productivas y de comercialización del mismo en aras de promover un desarrollo más intenso.

Fundamentos de gerencia pública MIGUEL CERÓN,2023-11-23 Este libro contiene un conjunto de reflexiones sobre el tema de la gestión pública, realizadas pensando en Colombia, con el propósito de contribuir a la construcción de un paquete conceptual que responda a las inquietudes sobre la realidad de la Administración pública en este país, que desde 1991 viene adelantando un proceso de transformación al que han llamado modernización del Estado, el cual no es cosa distinta al abandono del modelo burocrático para introducir el modelo gerencial. El texto está orientado a difundir fundamentos y bases que soportan la gerencia pública, como una alternativa para gestionar los asuntos públicos del país, por lo cual está dirigido a estudiantes, funcionarios y ciudadanos en general que estén interesados en profundizar más adelante en estudios detallados de otros aspectos particulares de las políticas públicas o la administración del Estado.
