53 Quotes to change your perception Prasanna M S, I believe that Life is always ready to teach, it depends on us whether we choose to learn from it or not. I have been guided by this principle and have continuously looked at several ways to acquire knowledge. During pandemic, I was looking for ways to keep the team motivated and engaged. It occurred to me that we can keep the team motivated by regularly bringing some relevant quotes from leaders around the world that can lift the spirits of the team. I started posting a quote on Monday each week, this was well received by the team and I extended this to share with social media on LinkedIn. Looking at an encouraging engagement and reaction to my posts. I continued this practice and that is how I ended up with more than a year worth of motivational quotes that I present to you as part of this journal/book. Initially I posted quotes that were already familiar or famous personalities who have had significant impact to society. Later this led to lot of research and learning on my own part. Here as part of this collection, I present to you what I learnt about the quote, the leaders and the quotes in turn had some meaningful thought provoking learning overall.

Learning Humility Richard J. Foster,2022-12-06 In a society dominated by raging narcissism, the virtue of humility is vanishing. Yet Richard Foster insists that humility is central to spiritual formation. Engaging with diverse sources including Native American culture, Julian of Norwich, and Scripture, Foster shares profound insight into what humility can look like in our contemporary culture.

Embodying Prayer Jennifer M. Fox Eades,2024-08-30 For centuries, European thought has separated mind and body and consequently prayer has been taught either either as a purely verbal process, a product of the rational mind or as an attempt to overcome, subdue or forget the body. This book draws on the gentle spirituality of St Francis and St Clare of Assisi and the embodied practice of the Alexander technique to put the body back into our prayers and to reclaim the physical as a site of the sacred. Written from within the Christian tradition but intended for those of any faith or none, it contains practical ideas for exploring prayer through simple movements and gentle physical practices, reclaiming the body as the heart of prayer. It is written from the perspective of a professional Alexander technique teacher, ordained minister in the Church of England, and life long practitioner of body/mind disciplines including Aikido, tai chi and qi gong, Each chapter concludes with practices to promote greater peace, physical ease, spiritual depth and a more restful approach to life.

Churches and Churchmen in Medieval Europe C. N. L. Brooke,1999-01-01 Considers many facets of the medieval church, dealing with institutions, buildings, personalities and literature. The text explores the origins of the diocese and the parish, the history of the See of Hereford and of York Minster. It discusses the arrival of the archdeacon, the Normans as cathedral builders and the kings of England and Scotland as monastic patrons. The studies of monastic life deal with the European question of monastic vocation and with St Bernard's part in the sensational expansion of the early 12th century. An epilogue takes us to the 14th century, contrasting Chaucer's parson with an actual Norfolk rector.
