American Society of International Law

International Maritime Boundaries American Society of International Law, 1993 The ultimate guide to international maritime boundaries. Its unique practical features include: a systematic examination of all international maritime boundaries worldwide, the text of every modern boundary agreement, descriptions of judicially-established boundaries, plus other resources that make it an unmatched comprehensive, accessible resource in the field.

Interpretations of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea by International Courts and Tribunals Angela Del Vecchio, Roberto Virzo, 2019-04-25 This book addresses current developments concerning the interpretation of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) on the part of international courts and tribunals. It does so from different perspectives, by focusing on the jurisprudence of international and regional bodies, such as the International Court of Justice (ICJ), the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS), the European Court of Justice (ECJ) and the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), as well as international arbitral tribunals and the World Trade Organization (WTO) Dispute Settlement Body. The various contributions offer in-depth analyses of issues ranging from the interaction between the sources of the International Law of the Sea, to various substantial, procedural and institutional aspects of the regulatory framework established by UNCLOS. The book also focuses on the reference by international courts and tribunals, in Law of the Sea cases, to both general principles and rules concerning interpretation codified in the Vienna Conventions on the Law of Treaties.

Recueil Des Cours Académie De Droit International De La Haye, 2001-11-01 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law. This volume contains: - Le droit international à la recherche de ses valeurs: paix, développement, déémocratisation (conférence inaugurale), par B. BOUTROS-GHALI, membre du Curatorium de l'Académie; secrétaire général de la Francophonie, Paris. - The Evolution of International Law of the Sea: New Issues, New Challenges by T.

Serving the Rule of International Maritime Law Norman A. Martínez Gutiérrez, 2009-12-16 International maritime law is far from inert, everyday international affairs constantly test existing law and, in many occasions, require its development. The collection contains innovative studies on current issues and events that are testing the present state of international maritime law. The book is intended as a Festschrift to Professor David Attard and celebrates his career in international law. This work represents a close collaboration amongst many practitioners and academics involved in the field of international maritime law including Judge Helmut Tuerk, Francis Reynolds, William Tetley Q.C. and Patrick J.S. Griggs.
