The Greatest Classics of All Time is a sweeping anthology that celebrates the diversity and depth of literary achievement across centuries and continents. This collection brings together an astonishing variety of themes and styles, from the philosophical musings of Laozi and Plato to the vivid Gothic tales of Edgar Allan Poe and Mary Shelley. Central to this collection is the intersection of historical contexts and the transformative power of storytelling. The array of genres—spanning epic poetry, dramatic plays, and narrative fiction—showcases how storytelling evolves yet remains grounded in the human condition's hubris, passions, and moral dilemmas. The anthology pays homage to the legacy of these literary giants by highlighting their profound influence across global literary traditions. The contributing authors, including luminaries like Goethe, Dostoyevsky, and Austen, are chosen for their distinctive contributions to their respective cultural and literary milieus. Great Christian Classics Volume 1 Kevin Swanson,2017-06-05 There is a wealth of great literature to study in the history of man, some written by Christians and some by non-Christians. However, the Christian student should direct special attention to literature produced by Christians. The empires of man will always crumble and fall, but the kingdom of Jesus Christ will continue forever. This collection covers five of the greatest life narratives of all time. A thorough study of these great books will help students understand the life, theology, and worldview of some of the greatest Christian men in church history. Sit at the feet of some of the best teachers God has given to His church. Augustine Confessions: (354-430) Augustine is perhaps the most influential thinker of the first thousand years of Christian history. This fifth-century Christian wrote Confessions as a biography in the form of a prayer to God. Patrick Confessions: (387-493) Amid the chaos following the collapse of the Roman Empire, Patrick, a man of legendary faith, led the way to the evangelization of the wild and pagan tribes of Ireland. John Knox History of the Reformation In Scotland (c.1510-1572) Few men have lived in more dangerous times than John Knox of Scotland. Yet he led a reformation movement in a very dangerous land, leaving a testimony for generations to come. John Bunyan Grace Abounding (1628-1688) Great men tell great stories because they live them. This is the case with John Bunyan, whose personal testimony, Grace Abounding, records one of the most tumultuous and agonizing spiritual journeys. John Paton Autobiography (1824-1907) The kingdom of God is only taken by force by courageous men of faith like John Paton, whose missionary work among the cannibals in the New Hebrides is nothing short of legendary.

Substantive, lucid, and compelling. --
Bruce Ashford, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

The church has one job. It is called the Great Commission. Every Christian soldier should know the who, the what, the why, and the where of the marching orders left by our Lord and Commander-in-Chief, and this book does just that in an engaging and encouraging way. Read it and then get on with it! --James Merritt, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

This book is a succinct and at the same time wide-ranging exposition of the commission of Jesus given to the disciples and thus to the church to proclaim the gospel far and wide. The authors elucidate the meaning of key passages in Scripture and thus present the geographical scope, the theological content, and important historical parameters of the mission of the church. This book deserves to be read by every Christian believer committed to the glory of God in all the world and to the proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ. --Eckhard J. Schnabel, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
