From Alexandria, Through Baghdad Nathan Sidoli, Glen Van Brummelen, 2013-10-30 This book honors the career of historian of mathematics J.L. Berggren, his scholarship, and service to the broader community. The first part, of value to scholars, graduate students, and interested readers, is a survey of scholarship in the mathematical sciences in ancient Greece and medieval Islam. It consists of six articles (three by Berggren himself) covering research from the middle of the 20th century to the present. The remainder of the book contains studies by eminent scholars of the ancient and medieval mathematical sciences. They serve both as examples of the breadth of current approaches and topics, and as tributes to Berggren's interests by his friends and colleagues.

The Evil at Monteine Brian Ball, 2012-07-23 When Richard Ulrome is offered the chance to work for billionaire oilman Simon Miaolo, Anne Blackwell is pleased for her fiancé's career. But as time goes by, Richard almost becomes a prisoner at Monteine Castle, Miaolo's feudal headquarters. Slowly, Anne begins to realize that Richard--and she--are being manipulated by a master of Evil in a hideous satanic ritual of sacrifice and renewal as old as time. Like others before her, she finally turns to Ruane the Witchfinder, a defrocked priest who will listen to her tale of horror, a man waging his own private war against the Devil. Together, she and Ruane and several others must find a way to stop...THE EVIL AT MONTEINE!
