Poetry Has All My Pain Vic'Adex (Adetimilehin Inioluwa Victor),2025-11-28 When a schizophrenic alter ego meets manic vulnerability, poetry becomes confession. In this haunting and redemptive collection, Adetimilehin “Vic’Adex” Inioluwa writes through the ache of fatherhood, faith, loss, and mental survival. Each poem is a scar that still glows, a dialogue between trauma and transcendence. From the raw wounds of Dear Father and The Joke About Offing Light to the solemn faith of Dare I Call You Father and Peace Cannot Wait, this book confronts pain as both inheritance and initiation. It captures the dissonance of growing up in a world where silence bruises deeper than sound. Yet every verse still reaches for light. Poetry Has All My Pain is not a lament. It is catharsis. It is a reckoning with the ghosts that raise us and the grace that remakes us. For those who have loved through loss, questioned through faith, and survived through words, these poems will find you where it hurts and leave you where it heals.
