Bill Donahue

The Last Gift of Time Carolyn G. Heilbrun, 1997 The feminist writer and author of the Amanda Cross mystery series looks back on a youthful pledge to commit suicide at seventy, explaining why, given that her sixties have been her happiest decade, she decided not to take her life.

This Gift Called Me Vincent Alvin Quarterman, 2013-02 This Gift Called Me: Wings for One's Spirit is a compilation of inspirational pieces that are intended to uplift and enlighten readers with the realization that they are greatly blessed as individuals. It is the author's firm belief that greatness resides in all of us. By learning to slowly unleash the enormous potential of their spiritual wings the readers can then soar to greater heights within themselves by taking a good long look at who God truly created them to be. This insightful guidebook for the spirit was inspired by the daily need for God in our lives. The author believes there is a buried treasure chest hidden within us all consisting of our God-given gifts and talents. The author strongly expresses in this book that by sharing our wealth of supernatural endowments with the waiting world outside, we can and will fulfill God's intended purpose for our lives. Vincent Alvin Quarterman comes from a large family of nine children (five boys and four girls), which he feels fuels his love of life and caring for mankind. He grew up with two loving parents in Neptune, New Jersey without a lot of money, but with immense spiritual riches. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Journalism and a Master's Degree in Business Administration and is currently working toward a Doctoral Degree in Marketing Management. Apart from his writing and his studies, the author enjoys photographing nature scenes, people, or anything that's unique and interesting. This Gift Called Me: Wings for One's Spirit is his first book. Author's photograph by Delores Phillips.

The Irresistible Community Bill Donahue, 2015-07-28 We all want a place where our stories matter, our voices are heard, our uniqueness is celebrated, our failures are embraced, and our hopes are unleashed. That kind of deep, life-changing community was modeled perfectly by Jesus and the ragged bunch of disciples with whom he chose to spend his time. But how can we create it in our lives? Using the relationship of Jesus to his disciples in the upper room, Bill Donahue presents a simple but compelling approach to community life that was modeled by Jesus and offered to us all today. Using a table, a towel, and the truth, Jesus created an irresistible community where everyone finds a place to belong, live fully in the truth, and serve others with joy. Foreword by Dr. Henry Cloud.

The Gift of European Thought and the Cost of Living Vassos Argyrou,2013-09-01 European thought is often said to be a gift to the rest of the world, but what if there is no gift as such? What if there is only an economy where every giving is also a taking, and every taking is also a giving? This book extends the question of economies by making a case for an “economy of thought” and a “political economy.” It argues that all thinking and doing presupposes taking, and therefore giving, as the price to pay for taking; or that there exists a “cost of living,” which renders the idea of free thinking and living untenable. The argument is developed against the Enlightenment directive to think for oneself as the means of becoming autonomous and shows that this “light,” given to the rest of the world as a gift, turns out to be nothing.
