Senses of Touch: Human Dignity and Deformity from Michelangelo to Calvin Marjorie O'Rourke Boyle, 2021-10-11 Senses of Touch anatomizes the uniquely human hand as a rhetorical figure for dignity and deformity in early modern culture. It concerns a valuational shift from the contemplative ideal, as signified by the sense of sight, to an active reality, as signified by the sense of touch. From posture to piety, from manicure to magic, the book discovers touch in a critical period of its historical development, in anatomy and society. It features new interpretations of two landmarks of western civilization: Michelangelo's fresco of the Creation of Adam and Calvin's doctrine of election. It also accords special attention to the typing of women as sensual creatures by using their hands as a heuristic. Its alternative interpretations explore in theory and in practice the sensuality, the creativity, and the plain utility of hands, thus integrating biology and culture.

Nonverbal Communication in Everyday Life Martin S. Remland, 1999-10 Remland divides his study of physical appearance, facial and vocal expression, gazing behavior, personal space, interpersonal touch, and gestures into three major sections: foundation as a general background to the systematic study of such phenomena and the key principles; some types of channels and functions, and their primary purposes in each of four signaling systems; and applications in a variety of situations.
