Winning the War in Your Mind Workbook Craig Groeschel, 2021-06-15 In this twelve-lesson workbook, pastor and New York Times bestselling author Craig Groeschel pairs modern psychology and biblical teaching to reveal how to win the war in your mind and restore daily peace in your life. What you think shapes who you are. If your thoughts are out of control, your life will be as well. Both the Bible and modern science provide evidence that this is true. In recent years, a discipline of psychology called cognitive behavioral therapy has gained popularity. This discipline is rooted in an understanding that many problems--from eating disorders to relational challenges, addictions, and even some forms of depression--are rooted in negative patterns of thinking. Treating those problems begins with changing that thinking. This has many parallels with Scripture. In Paul's letter to the Philippians, he writes about turning our thoughts to certain types of things (truth, purity, loveliness...) and putting them into practice so that we experience God's peace. In this workbook, Craig goes deeper into the principles outlined in his book (sold separately) to reveal the strategies he has discovered that will change your mind and, by extension, your life for the long-term. Each lesson includes biblical exploration, reflection and application questions, and practical exercises to help you: Gain insight into how your brain works and how your thoughts affect your reality. Identify your destructive thought patterns and eliminate them from your life. Become a thought warrior and replace the enemy's lies with God's truth. God has something better for your life than your old ways of thinking. It's time to change your mind so God can change your life.

Summary for Winning the War in Your Mind Life Lessons, 2021-03-08 Note to Readers: This is an unofficial summary & analysis of Craig Groeschel's Winning the war in your mind designed to enrich your reading experience. Life Lessons is wholly responsible for this content and is not associated with the original author in any way. -Winning the War in Your mind, by Craig Groeschel begins with the author stating his belief that a person's life will follow the direction of their thoughts. Groeschel—who is the founder and pastor of an American evangelical church—offers up an example by quoting the apostle Paul. Paul is working through a problem and he begins with a thought, moves on to an action, and then finishes with the experience. Groeschel compares this process to cognitive behavioral therapy, which, among other problems, has been used to treat addiction and eating disorders. This particular type of psychological therapy aims to treat problems by changing the way people think; to take a person's negative thoughts and turn them into something positive. To Groeschel, cognitive behavioral therapy is further evidence that the Bible and modern psychology are in line with one another, and that the power of positive thinking can have a huge impact on the direction one's life will take. Taking this theory into account, the author wrote Winning the War in Your Mind based on the premise that if our thoughts can have an impact on where our life will take us, then we need to thoroughly consider the direction they are going in. Winning the War in Your Mind is separated into four sections, which are each further broken down into three chapters. Part one looks at the lies we tell ourselves, and where they come from. The author looks at the mind as a war zone, where there is a constant battle between good and evil. Evil uses lies to make a person think negative thoughts, which in turn holds them back from living a fulfilling life. The first section of the book looks at exposing these lies and replacing them with the truth of God's words.

WINNING THE WAR IN YOUR MIND Hlompho Phamodi, 2016-06-07 When I was getting ready to write this, book the Holy Spirit took me back to the time when I was still in the world. Every time I heard the gospel preached to me it appeared so foolish for me to understand. I couldn't understand why people would make such a big deal about being saved. It was like voices were saying in my mind, that what was being preached is not true. God will not let me go to hell I am a good person. It was like my mind was fighting the truth and Biblical facts that I couldn't deny. I don't know how many times I tried to stop bad addictions such as smoking; I will be able to stop for a few days only to fall back again. This was what the Bible refers to as strongholds. The devil was manipulating me all along and I wasn't aware at all. This is his main agenda, to make people blind; he is out to make them think in the way that is contrary to the truth of Gods word. And he achieves it by deception. He deceives a person to the point that they can't see their faults. The Bible calls him a father of lies. There are millions of people today that are deceived by the devil, even some of which are saved and not fully grown and are subject to demonic deception, that is why I am writing this book...
