Strategic Perspectives on the Reconstruction and Diachronic Interpretation of Stereotypical Theolinguistic Matrices in Religious-Popular Discourse Olesya Cherkhava, Yan Kapranov, Maksym W. Sitnicki, Bożena Iwanowska, 2025-04-14 This monograph delves into the complex relationship between language, religion, and culture, focusing on how religious discourse evolves and adapts across English, German, and Ukrainian contexts. By reconstructing theolinguistic matrices—the frameworks that encode religious beliefs—this work reveals how key concepts like faith, righteousness, and repentance are communicated, preserved, and transformed over time. Combining comparative linguistics with cognitive-semantic approaches, the volume offers strategic insights into the metaphorical and archetypal structures underlying religious language, bridging ancient traditions with modern communicative contexts.

Patchwork Philosophy Sylvia Charles, 2021-08-05 I have had the idea of this book for many years and have, at last, made a start on putting my thoughts down on paper. I did initially think I would give the book the title of "The Earth Mother's Diary" but on reflection thought that sounded rather "twee". My next visualised title was "Whoever said progress was a One-way Street?" but, once again, I wasn't convinced by the impact this would create even though it represented a lot of my opinions. Eventually due to the nature and content of my book I hit upon the notion of Patchwork Philosophy which seemed to fit the bill perfectly, so here it is. I would stress that if some of my ideas seem offensive to anyone, please don't take offence, they are purely my own thoughts, ideas and principles upon which I try and live by.
