Women of Sufism Camille Adams Helminski, 2003-02-25 This collection of Sufi poetry and songs is “an inspiring source to deepen our knowledge of Sufism by the examples and teachings of . . . beautiful and wise Sufi women” (Sufism) The luminous presence of women who follow the Sufi Way—the mystical path of Islam—is brought to life here through their sacred songs and poetry, their dreams and visions, and stories of their efforts as they witness the Truth in many realms. These writings reflect the honor and respect for the feminine in the Sufi worldview, and they are shared in the spirit of inspiration and hope for the flourishing contributions of women to the spiritual development of humanity. Spanning the centuries, from the time of the Prophet Muhammad to the present day, the selections are by or about an array of Sufi traditions in different parts of the world, from Asia, Africa, and the Middle East to Europe and America—from beloved members of the Prophet’s family to the mystic Rabi’a al-Adawiyya to the modern scholar Annemarie Schimmel. Biographical anecdotes and personal memoirs provide a glimpse into the experience of great saints and contemporary practitioners alike, while providing an introduction to the principles and practices of Sufism.

Essence of the Holy Qur'an Malik Ghulam Farid,2021-06-01 Essence of the Holy Qur'an by Malik Ghulam Farid provides an overview of the message of the Holy Quran and its implications for the body of believers. Farid analyzes each Chapter of the Holy Qur'an, providing the historical context and background surrounding the events recorded therein. He also presents a summary of the content in the sequence it appears. Farid tailored this treatise for an audience that finds difficulty in either reading the Qur'an's Arabic text or following its literal translation. It is a commendable effort that simplifies the cultural, linguistic, and theological intricacies which abound throughout the Quran.

Mirror of the Intellect Titus Burckhardt,1987 Fons Vitae is devoted to making available works from the world's great spiritual traditions which could be of true use to a person of any faith seeking Wholeness or Holiness. Literally translated from Latin as the fountain of life, fons vitae refers to the Knowledge which flows out to mankind from the Divine Source. Although Fons Vitae was established in 1997, its efforts are a continuation of publishing begun in Cambridge, England in 1979 as Quinta Essentia (focused on symbolism, the arts, and universal spirituality) and the Islamic Texts Society (whose aim is to translate important work in the Islamic tradition, especially Sufism). Our wish is to bring out books which are exquisitely produced and impeccable in scholarship, which could be used with confidence by both the university professor in classes and by the person interested in the eternal verities, with no compromise to a recent soft focus on spirituality. A person seeking the realm of the sacred must have authentic and reliable traditional sources to find the sustenance required for his or her own path and inspiration. Our work has been so beautifully crafted that we won the 1991 and 1993 Best Produced and Designed Book Award in Great Britain. Works from Fons Vitae often become focal points for events -- Merton and Sufism: The Untold Story precipitated a congress at the Thomas Merton Center at Bellarmine College, Louisville, Kentucky. His Holiness the Dalai Lama requested Islam in Tibet and The Ornaments of Lhasa be brought into being. Cairo: 1001 Years of Islamic Art and Architecture and Islam: A Pictorial Essay have been prominent in the film festival of the Middle East Studies Association annual conference. Complete collection of Burckhardt's essays shows how the symbolist perspective cultivated by the Sufis offers insights into Islamic art as well as Russian icons, the Odyssey, chess, and the Sun Dance of the American Indians.
