Shadow Work Journal Jess Bicknell, 2023-01-05 Welcome to your Shadow Journal Before we start taking a look at the exercises within this journal, it is best that we work up to those by understanding what a shadow self is and what shadow work can do for you as a witch or even as just an average everyday person. What is the shadow self? Shadow Self and Psychology: The shadow self - sometimes simply called our shadow - is the unconscious part of the brain, which drives a large amount of our behavior. Automatic responses to triggers, deep-seated habits, and emotional patterns live in this shadow self. What is the Shadow Self, like really what is it and why is it important to understand it on a fundamental principal level before diving deeply into witchcraft? The concept of the shadow self comes from Jungian psychology. Carl Jung was a colleague of Sigmund Freud. While they may have worked together, their theories and findings were on total different wavelengths. Jung took Freud's concepts of the conscious and subconscious mind a step further, Jung identified the disowned, shamed parts of our mind as our dark side and often spoke of our repressed desires as the shadow. Today, we understand that shadow work tackles the challenging tasks of fixing old patterns and acknowledging our darker and more wicked sides as part of a larger whole. To work along one's shadow self is to try and achieve balance and harmony, to break cycles of pain-learning and healing from them.

Shadow Work Journal and Workbook: Shadow Work Journal Prompts Workbook Important to Improve Self-Awareness, Challenge, Trigger, Unlock and Deal with Shadow Self Ronny Dhiphiranyakul,2021-08-05 Shadow Work Journal and Workbook for Beginners: Shadow Work Journal Prompts Workbook to Improve Self-awareness, Becoming Emotionally Whole, Beholding Glory and Becoming Whole Guide for Shadow Work that Actually Works, Self-Discovery & Improve Your Life Invite your shadow side into the light! One does not become enlightened by imagining figures of light, but by making the darkness conscious. - Carl Jung - According to Jungian psychology, shadow is a part of the unconscious mind. Shadow consists of repressed weaknesses, shortcomings, and instincts. Everyone carries shadow to one degree or another. We don't want to talk about it because we want to focus on the light and the things we love. We want to pretend it isn't there and in so doing we actually give it energy and life of its own. Since the shadow is, by definition, upsetting to acknowledge, we shove our awareness of it down into the unconscious. That means that the only way to truly know what's in your shadow is to think about the things that infuriate you, disgust you, and horrify you more than anything else. If cruelty just makes you sick, Jung would say that cruelty is in your shadow. Carl Jung named the face we present to the world, the public façade we use to hide things we don't like about ourselves the persona. The flipside of the persona is the shadow, which is like a three-dimensional version of our physical shadows, packed full of things we're trying to hide, sometimes even from ourselves. Jung believed that in spite of its function as a reservoir for human darkness--or perhaps because of this,the shadow is the seat of creativity. How to use this Shadow Work Journal and Workbook, try not to think too much about the answers; your unconscious does better work when you're not wondering if you're doing the exercise right or criticizing the answers you come up with. You can write as many answers as you like for each part, since there is no right or wrong number. You'll probably find, though, that coming up with at least five will help you get more out of the exercise. Breakthroughs do occur in the tough conversations when you risk being all of who you are; amazing what happens in family, work and relationships when you feel safe enough to risk that.
