Jesus Christ did not come to this world by chance, he did his best not only to show us the infinite greatness of God's love, but to teach us good manners, attitudes that could facilitate our harmonious coexistence with our fellow men, such as: Love, forgiveness, patience with the weaknesses of others, the breaking of bread, humility and many others that if practiced can transform our lives. When writing this work, I had in mind to encourage my readers to put into practice such an example given to us by the Author of our Faith.
