Space Invaders Nona Fernández, 2019-11-05 Longlisted for the National Book Award for Translated Literature A dreamlike evocation of a generation that grew up in the shadow of a dictatorship in 1980s Chile Space Invaders is the story of a group of childhood friends who, in adulthood, are preoccupied by uneasy memories and visions of their classmate Estrella González Jepsen. In their dreams, they catch glimpses of Estrella's braids, hear echoes of her voice, and read old letters that eventually, mysteriously, stopped arriving. They recall regimented school assemblies, nationalistic class performances, and a trip to the beach. Soon it becomes clear that Estrella's father was a ranking government officer implicated in the violent crimes of the Pinochet regime, and the question of what became of her after she left school haunts her erstwhile friends. Growing up, these friends—from her pen pal, Maldonado, to her crush, Riquelme—were old enough to sense the danger and tension that surrounded them, but were powerless in the face of it. They could control only the stories they told one another and the “ghostly green bullets” they fired in the video game they played obsessively. One of the leading Latin American writers of her generation, Nona Fernández effortlessly builds a choral and constantly shifting image of young life in the waning years of the dictatorship. In her short but intricately layered novel, she summons the collective memory of a generation, rescuing felt truth from the oblivion of official history.

Space Invaders Nona Fernández, Esta novela corta de Nona Fernández, pone en clave de ficción la misma historia que narro, en clave autobiográfica, en Volver a los 17 sobre su infancia y adolescencia en tiempos de dictadura. Hay mayor elaboración, desde luego, y trabajo de la ficción, especialmente en el modo de revivir la época y en la variedad de voces y materiales convocados para enriquecer la historia y el punto de vista. Nona Fernández Silanes se refiere a los sueños de una generación convertidos en pesadilla que todavía hoy supuran en sus noches. Con una belleza conmovedora, Space Invaders atraviesa la amistad, la traición y la dictadura de Pinochet.

Space Invaders/ Chilean Electric Nona Fernández, 2018-09-24 Nona Fernández legt zwei erschütternde und zugleich berührende Novellen vor, in denen sie mit der Vergangenheit Chiles abzuschließen versucht. Zutiefst persönlich, mit starken Worten schließt sie an ihre Romane Die Toten im trüben Wasser des Mapocho und Die Straße zum 10. Juli an. SPACE INVADERS Die Autorin blickt auf die 1980er-Jahre der chilenischen Diktatur in einer Geschichte, in der für die jugendlichen Hauptfiguren das Kult-Videospiel Space Invaders einzige Fluchtmöglichkeit vor der Wirklichkeit ist, doch bald schon selbst zur Wirklichkeit wird – oder werden könnte. Space Invaders ist ein autobiografischer Text, der sich mal als Geister-, mal als Horrorgeschichte wie in einer anderen Dimension präsentiert. CHILEAN ELECTRIC Die Erzählung ist eine Gratwanderung zwischen Autobiografie und Fiktion. Zu Beginn steht der Tag, als die Großmutter der Autorin das elektrische Licht kennenlernte, in einem Festakt, der die öffentliche und private Beleuchtung in Santiago de Chile einleitete. Während der Recherche entdeckt die Erzählerin aber, dass diese Ereignisse zwar stattfanden, aber lange bevor ihre Großmutter geboren wurde. Warum erfand die alte Frau eine Erinnerung? Wie wahrheitsgetreu können und müssen Erinnerungen sein? Und was ist mit all den verschwundenen Menschen? Wer erinnert sich an sie?

Latin American Literature in Transition 1980-2018: Volume 5 Mónica Szurmuk, Debra A. Castillo, 2022-12-08 How do we address the idea of the literary now at the end of the second decade in the 21st century? Many traditional categories obscure or overlook significant contemporary forms of cultural production. This volume looks at literature and culture in general in this hinge period. Latin American Literature in Transition 1980-2018 examines the ways literary culture complicates national or area studies understandings of cultural production. Topics point to fresh, intersectional understandings of cultural practice, while keeping in mind the ongoing stakes in a struggle over material and intangible cultural and political borders that are being reinforced in formidable ways.

38 Londres Street Philippe Sands, 2025-10-07 In this intimate legal and historical detective story, the world-renowned lawyer and acclaimed author of East West Street traces the footsteps of two of the twentieth century's most merciless criminals—accused of genocide and crimes against humanity—testing the limits of immunity and impunity after Nuremberg. “Though nearly a decade in the making, this book could not arrive at a better time, because its subject is one of the most pressing themes of our era: impunity. . . . Sands has created an indelible and enthralling work of moral witness.” —Patrick Radden Keefe, author of Say Nothing On the evening of October 16, 1998, Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet was arrested at a medical clinic in London. After a brutal, seventeen-year reign marked by assassinations, disappearances, and torture—frequently tied to the infamous detention center at the heart of Santiago, Londres 38—Pinochet was being indicted for international crimes and extradition to Spain, opening the door to criminal charges that would follow him to the grave, in 2006. Three decades earlier, on the evening of December 3, 1962, SS-Commander Walter Rauff was arrested in his home in Punta Arenas, at the southern tip of Chile. As the overseer of the development and use of gas vans in World War II, he was indicted for the mass murder of tens of thousands of Jews and faced extradition to West Germany. Would these uncommon criminals be held accountable? Were their stories connected? The Nuremberg Trials—where Rauff's crimes had first been read into the record, in 1945—opened the door to universal jurisdiction, and Pinochet's case would be the first effort to ensnare a former head of state. In this unique blend of memoir, courtroom drama, and travelogue, Philippe Sands gives us a front row seat to the Pinochet trial—where he acted as a barrister for Human Rights Watch—and teases out the dictator’s unexpected connection to a leading Nazi who ended up managing a king crab cannery in Patagonia. A decade-long journey exposes the chilling truth behind the lives of two men and their intertwined destinies on 38 Londres Street.

Civil Obedience Michael Lazzara, 2018-05-15 Boldly breaks new ground in studies of Latin American postdictatorial memories by tackling a taboo topic--civilian complicity with the Pinochet regime--that Chilean society has strategically avoided.

Space Invaders Nona Fernández Silanes, 2014-12-02 Nona Fernández Silanes se refiere a los sueños de una generación convertidos en pesadilla que todavía hoy supuran en sus noches. Con una belleza conmovedora, Space Invaders atraviesa la amistad, la traición y la dictadura de Pinochet. Diego Erlan, Revista Ñ. A diferencia de cierta “literatura de hijos” que toma el punto de vista de los niños, Space Invaders no presenta a los infantes como almas ingenuas, interrumpidas por los avatares históricos. Por el contrario, señala sus acciones y participaciones políticas, ahondando en el complejo entramado de elaboración de la memoria colectiva. Damián Huergo, Página 12 Space Invaders confirma la consistencia literaria alcanzada por Nona Fernández, quien escenifica con excelencia una estética de la memoria intervenida por una violencia que una vez inscrita en los cuerpos no los abandonará jamás. Patricia Espinoza, Las Últimas Noticias.

The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel Juan E. De Castro, Ignacio Lòpez-Calvo, 2023 The Latin American novel burst onto the international literary scene with the Boom era--led by Julio Cortázar, Gabriel García Márquez, Carlos Fuentes, and Mario Vargas Llosa--and has influenced writers throughout the world ever since. García Márquez and Vargas Llosa each received the Nobel Prize in literature, and many of the best-known contemporary novelists are inspired by the region's fiction. Indeed, magical realism, the style associated with García Márquez, has left a profound imprint on African American, African, Asian, Anglophone Caribbean, and Latinx writers. Furthermore, post-Boom literature continues to garner interest, from the novels of Roberto Bolaño to the works of César Aira and Chico Buarque, to those of younger novelists such as Juan Gabriel Vásquez, Alejandro Zambra, and Valeria Luiselli. Yet, for many readers, the Latin American novel is often read in a piecemeal manner delinked from the traditions, authors, and social contexts that help explain its evolution. The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel draws literary, historical, and social connections so that readers will come away understanding this literature as a rich and compelling canon. In forty-five chapters by leading and innovative scholars, the Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction, helping readers to see the region's intrinsic heterogeneity--for only with a broader view can one fully appreciate García Márquez or Bolaño. This volume charts the literary tradition of the Latin American novel from its beginnings during colonial times, its development during the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century, and its flourishing from the 1960s onward. Furthermore, the Handbook explores the regions, representations of identity, narrative trends, and authors that make this literature so diverse and fascinating, reflecting on the Latin American novel's position in world literature.

Images of Women in Hispanic Culture Teresa Fernandez Ulloa, 2016-08-17 This book studies the ways traditional polarized images of women have been used and challenged in the Hispanic world, especially during the 20th century and the beginning of the 21st century by writers and the media, but also in earlier time periods. The chapters analyze the image of women in specific political periods such as Francoism or the Kirchners' administration, stereotypes of women in films in Mexico and Chile, and the representation of women in textbooks, among other topics. Contributions also show how two women writers, in the 17th and the 19th centuries, viewed the role of women in their society.

The Twilight Zone Nona Fernández, 2021-03-16 * Finalist for the National Book Award for Translated Literature * An engrossing, incantatory novel about the legacy of historical crimes by the author of Space Invaders It is 1984 in Chile, in the middle of the Pinochet dictatorship. A member of the secret police walks into the office of a dissident magazine and finds a reporter, who records his testimony. The narrator of Nona Fernández's mesmerizing and terrifying novel The Twilight Zone is a child when she first sees this man's face on the magazine's cover with the words "I Tortured People." His complicity in the worst crimes of the regime and his commitment to speaking about them haunt the narrator into her adulthood and career as a writer and documentarian. Like a secret service agent from the future, through extraordinary feats of the imagination, Fernández follows the "man who tortured people" to places that archives can't reach, into the sinister twilight zone of history where morning routines, a game of chess, Yuri Gagarin, and the eponymous TV show of the novel's title coexist with the brutal yet commonplace machinations of the regime. How do crimes vanish in plain sight? How does one resist a repressive regime? And who gets to shape the truths we live by and take for granted? The Twilight Zone pulls us into the dark portals of the past, reminding us that the work of the writer in the face of historical erasure is to imagine so deeply that these absences can be, for a time, spectacularly illuminated.

Lenguajes de la Memoria II Mirian Pino, Dámaso Rabanal, 2017 Lenguajes de la Memoria II es el resultado del coloquio realizado en el año 2014 y de un número acotado de trabajos del coloquio del año 2016, ambos eventos realizados en la Facultad de Lenguas, de la Universidad Nacional de Córdoba.

Hospital Posadas Jorge Consiglio, 2015 La novela se bifurca en distintas historias que luego se entrelazan para componer el cuadro de una época marcada por varias formas de violencia, siempre desde juego de aproximaciones que evita la crónica de los hechos, sino que merodea por los bordes de la realidad

Análisis narratológico comparativo de "Space Invaders" e "Hijos" de Nona Fernández Lea Schwerdtfeger, 2024-12 Seminar paper del año 2024 en el tema Romanística - Estudios españoles, Nota: 1,0, Georg-August-Universität Göttingen (Seminar für Romanische Philologie), Materia: La generación de los hijos, Idioma: Español, Resumen: This paper examines two works by Chilean author Nona Fernández - the fictional novel Space Invaders (2015) and the autobiographical account Hijos (2013). Both texts reflect on the memory of Estrella González and intertwine personal experiences with historical events from the Pinochet dictatorship. The objective is to conduct a narratological comparison of the two works, focusing on narrative structure (discourse and story) and thematic elements such as dreams and the video game Space Invaders. The analysis applies narratological frameworks proposed by Martínez and Scheffel (2016) and Gröne et al. (2023) to explore similarities and differences. The study emphasizes selected aspects that could be further developed in future research.

Voyager Nona Fernández, 2023-02-21 A startling book-length essay, at once grand and intimate, from National Book Award finalist Nona Fernández. Voyager begins with Nona Fernández accompanying her elderly mother to the doctor to seek an explanation for her frequent falls and inability to remember what preceded them. As the author stares at the image of her mother's brain scan, it occurs to her that the electrical signals shown on the screen resemble the night sky. Inspired by the mission of the Voyager spacecrafts, Fernández begins a process of observation and documentation. She describes a recent trip to the remote Atacama desert—one of the world's best spots for astronomical observation—to join people who, like her, hope to dispel the mythologized history of Chile's new democracy. Weaving together the story of her mother's illness with story of her country and of the cosmos itself, Fernández braids astronomy and astrology, neuroscience and memory, family history and national history into this brief but intensely imagined autobiographical essay. Scrutinizing the mechanisms of personal, civic, and stellar memory, she insists on preserving the truth of what we've seen and experienced, and finding ways to recover what people and countries often prefer to forget. In Voyager, Fernández finds a new container for her profound and surreal reckonings with the past. One of the great chroniclers of our day, she has written a rich and resonant book.

Voyager Nona Fernández, 2020-07-01 La memoria de las estrellas. La memoria de una madre. La memoria de un pueblo. Cómo recordamos. Por qué. Para qué. Un ensayo emocionante que aborda estas y otras preguntas. Acompañando a su madre en sus exámenes neurológicos, la narradora de este libro advierte que la actividad cerebral proyectada en el monitor tiene muchas similitudes con las imágenes astronómicas que conoce. A partir de esa constatación, Nona Fernández comienza en este, su primer ensayo, a escudriñar en los mecanismos de la memoria estelar y la humana. Tomando nota de todo lo que lee, observa y piensa, al modo de las Voyager, esas sondas exploratorias del espacio, Fernández va vinculando ese registro a su propia historia y a la del país, planteando con inteligencia cuestiones que son de ahora y de siempre. Cómo recuerdan las estrellas y las personas son interrogantes que inevitablemente llevan a preguntarse cómo recuerdan los pueblos, y cómo olvidan, y Nona Fernández las aborda con la sagacidad y el ímpetu que caracterizan su obra.
