Have you established a baseline for that person's personality? If you don't know what this means,

don't worry, you will learn in chapter three. All of these are worth considering before you start trying to analyze the people in your life. Foolproof Techniques for Reading Body Language: After you have gone through the motions of preparing to read someone, how do you actually do it? What do certain movements of the eyes, legs, and arms mean? What does it mean if someone is blinking a lot? Every motion means something different. When someone Likes you or is Lying: Who hasn't wanted to be able to know when someone they like returns their feelings? Who hasn't been curious about being able to tell when someone is lying or being truthful? Taking it upon yourself to learn how to analyze people and read their nonverbal cues will help you in this area, as well as in many others. In the last couple of chapters of this book, you will get a quick and simple guide to being able to tell when someone thinks favorably of you, as well as signs that they are not being honest with you. Other topics we will cover in this book: Body Language Facial Expressions Hand Gestures Reading People Reading Minds Body expression People Reading How to Read People Recognizing Emotions How to Analyze People Mind Reading Analyzing people Whether you are trying to read a stranger or someone you know, the tips and techniques in this guide will help you along the way. Have you ever been in a situation where you badly wanted to understand the true motives of a person so that you can make a sensible decision? I bet you have because this is often something we all go through on a regular basis. Why is my boss behaving this way? Or why is my spouse talking in a condemning manner? If you have asked these questions to yourself in the past, then you are in the right place. Once you learn to read people physically and psychologically, you will answer several unanswered questions. In the end, we all come to a question that we are never sure of - can I trust this person? Never, I repeat, never take someone for their face value. Humans are social animals, and we cannot go about our day without talking to others. This makes it all the more important for you to be able to read people. Not everyone you meet is going to treat you the same way.
