Polycentric Water Governance in Spain Nora Schütze,2023-05-25 Increasing irrigation efficiency has been high on the political agenda in Spain for many years. However, the overarching aim to reduce agricultural water consumption has not been met so far. To explore this phenomenon, Nora Schütze investigates processes of coordination between the water and agricultural sector in three Spanish river basins in the context of the EU Water Framework Directive implementation. From the perspective of polycentric governance, she identifies multiple mechanisms which illustrate how and why actors interact in certain ways, and thus shows why environmental aims of the Water Framework Directive remain unachieved.

Strategies for Sustainable Territorial Development D'Auria, Anna,Sanchez-Rivas Garcia, Javier,2025-04-08 Sustainable development has been one of the focal themes in the international debate for several decades now. More recently, with the intervention of local institutions and governments, there has been an increasing awareness of the importance of promoting forms of local development, based on endogenous valuable resources (natural and cultural), leading to the enhancement of the territorial heritage and the emergence of opportunities for growth for all communities due to the spread of new technologies. The territorial heritage includes all the factors that characterize a territory that can be transformed into valuable resources capable of generating competitive advantage, becoming levers of development. It follows that the proper management and enhancement of local resources can represent a source of well-being and growth, both in economic and social terms. The starting point must be the recognition of the heritage present in a territory and the recognition of the value, including potential value. Strategies for Sustainable Territorial Development contributes to the process of raising awareness about the importance of local resources as a lever for sustainable development that can support the territory both in terms of economic growth and in terms of social progress. It is developed based on three trajectories, namely: the recognition and enhancement of the territorial heritage; sustainability as an approach to the use of resources and an objective of development; and innovation as a tool for achieving a correct and rational use of resources. Covering topics such as foreign trade, industrial parks, and cultural heritage, this book is an excellent resource for government officials, policymakers, sustainability advocates, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more.

Mujeres, medio ambiente y desarrollo rural Nieves López Estébanez, Emilia Martínez Garrido, Ester Sáez Pombo, 2004
Mujeres, medio ambiente y desarrollo rural. Analiza las relaciones actuales entre mujeres, medio ambiente y desarrollo rural desde un enfoque de género, en el contexto de la diversificación económica apoyada por la aplicación de algunas políticas agrarias.

Mediterranean Coastal Lagoons S. Cataudella, Donatella Crosetti, Fabio Massa, 2015 The Mediterranean region hosts around 400 coastal lagoons, covering a surface of over 641 000 ha differing in both their typology and use. Fisheries and various forms of aquaculture have been traditionally carried out in Mediterranean coastal lagoons since ancient times and are part of the cultural heritage of the region. Traditional lagoon management linked to extensive aquaculture and fish harvesting has certainly contributed, over time, to preserve these peculiar ecosystems, although much of the coastal lagoon areas have progressively disappeared due to land reclamation and other uses. Recently, coastal lagoons have become a relevant environmental concern: land claiming, pollution and the lack of management, among other factors, have strongly modified both the structure and functioning of these sensitive coastal ecosystems. In particular, the management of traditional aquaculture and capture fisheries activities has been identified as the main instrument to maintain lagoons' ecological features and to prevent the degradation of their sensitive habitats, both from an environmental and socioeconomic point of view. To guarantee the sustainability of aquaculture and capture fisheries in lagoons, proper management plans should be established so as to ensure the preservation of both biodiversity and local knowledge. This should also be considered as a fundamental pillar for any programme aiming at the preservation and restoration of lagoons' environment.--

Espacios y desarrollos rurales Román Rodríguez González, Edelmira Pérez C., 2004 Espacios y desarrollos rurales. Una visión múltiple desde Europa y Latinoamérica es el resultado de un esfuerzo colectivo, llevado a cabo por trece profesores de diferentes universidades españolas y latinoamericanas. El germen del mismo ha sido la puesta en marcha de una Red Temática Docente, financiada por la Agencia Española de Cooperación Internacional, de título Desarrollo Rural: Aspectos Ambientales y Territoriales. Las universidades partícipes han sido seis. Tres españolas: la de Santiago de Compostela, con una función de coordinadora, la de León y la de Huelva. Tres latinoamericanas. la Pontificia Universidad Javeriana de Bogotá (Colombia), la Federal de Bahía (Brasil) y la de Los Andes de Mérida (Venezuela). La operatividad de esta red, de 1999 al 2001, ha permitido la acumulación de un corpus científico muy variado. Este trabajo pretende recopilar las experiencias profesionales y académicas de los miembros integrantes de esta red, muy enriquecidas por el siempre productivo intercambio de experiencias y el conocimiento de diferentes realidades espaciales. En el mismo se abordan diferentes perspectivas de análisis y visiones del desarrollo rural (territoriales, antropológicas, economicistas, históricas, socioculturales, políticas...) que interaccionan de un modo muy directo. No se trata sólo de un documento cuyo origen y destino es la Universidad. Al contrario, en el mismo se reflejan los múltiples contactos y relaciones establecidas con agentes locales, sindicalistas, responsables políticos, empresarios gestores y beneficiarios de programas específicos. Una significativa parte de los esfuerzos se han dirigido, precisamente, a ampliar la visión académica que se podría tener desde un ámbito meramente universitario, incorporando a este texto vivencias y casuísticas particulares que enriquecen el producto final. El libro se estructura en tres grandes bloques. El primero aborda, desde una perspectiva meramente teórica, el significado del desarrollo rural en dos conjuntos regionales con características políticas, sociales, culturales, económicas y territoriales tan diferentes como son la Europa comunitaria y el cono sur americano. En un segundo se entra de lleno, aportando una visión comparada, en las implicaciones territoriales, socioeconómicas y ambientales que este proceso supone. Se presta especial atención a las dinámicas espaciales, a los procesos de planificación, o a factores que nada tienen que ver con la población o la economía rural, pero que sin embargo sí son claves fundamentales para entender el desarrollo rural en áreas rurales como, por ejemplo, las colombianas. Por último, se presentan experiencias concretas llevadas a cabo en esta materia, tanto en España como en Latinoamérica, para afinar la gran riqueza de matices que un término que este implica. Para ello se aportan capítulos específicos con datos, programas y proyectos específicos que han tenido cierta repercusión en el desarrollo rural.

Comunicación, ruralidad y desarrollo Gustavo Gimadevilla, 2004 Mitos; Paradigmas; Dispositivos del cambio.

Sobre el "estado de îhâ" Inmaculada Camarero Castellano, 2015 En el estudio multidisciplinar que se presenta, basado en casi su totalidad en fuentes árabes buena parte de ellas se encontraba sin traducir, se sistematiza el tema de las calamidades agrícolas cuando afectaban a los campos andalusíes. Y, aunque en un principio y de cara a la indemnización, los juristas musulmanes sólo tuvieron en cuenta las tierras arrendadas o la compraventa de frutos, con el tiempo fueron concediendo ayudas a otros negocios muy distintos e, incluso, fuera del medio rural, como tiendas, hornos, baños públicos, molinos o salinas. Es la primera vez que se presenta un trabajo exhaustivo sobre los siniestros acaecidos en el medio rural y urbano de al-Andalus, en el que se constata el profundo conocimiento de agricultura y botánica de los juristas andalusíes, como resultado de una más que posible transmisión de conocimiento entre agricultores y hombres de leyes.

España en la Unión Europea José J. Romero Rodríguez, Adolfo Roderio Franganillo, 1999 Reedición de una obra anterior titulada España en la CEE : del Acta Única al Tratado de Maastricht. Se ha sometido este texto a una revisión minuciosa, introduciéndose capítulos nuevos y suprimiéndose otros que habían perdido actualidad. Se estudia el proceso de integración europea, el papel de España en la Unión y las políticas comunitarias. 17.
