101 Poems That Could Save Your Life Daisy Goodwin,2024-04-16 Prozac has side effects, drinking gives you hangovers, therapy's expensive. For quick and effective relief -- or at least some literary comfort -- from everyday and exceptional problems, try a poem. Over the ages, people have turned to poets as ambassadors of the emotions, because they give voice and definition to our troubles, and by so doing, ease them. No matter how bad things get, poets have been there, too, and they can help you get over the rough spots. This is the first poetry anthology designed expressly for the self-help generation. The poems listed include classics by Emily Dickinson, Lord Byron, Ogden Nash, and Lucretius, to name just a few, along with newer works by such current practitioners as Seamus Heaney and Wendy Cope. This book has a cure or consolation for nearly every affliction, ancient or modern. And no side effects-except pleasure.

Death, Dying, and Realities: Now What? A. King CGRS,2019-08-30 Grief is the emotion experienced by discovery; death of a person; and loss of a place, thing, time, art, and music. The discovery pertains to extramarital affair; cheating in a relationship; and addictions to drugs, alcohol, gambling, pornography, wrong doing, etc. The loss of a person pertains to the relationship, i.e., friendship, dating, breakups, caregiver, divorce, and separation in the family. The loss of a place pertains to moving from a home or community; job or employment, and graduation from school, college, university, or technical institution. The loss of a thing pertains to a job, ring, earring, pendant, watch, car, house, etc. This loss also pertains to acting career, sports career, being cut from a team, not chosen by a team, and failed contact negotiations. The loss of a time pertains to life, living, and season. The loss of art and music pertains to never to see old or new art and never to hear old or new music from the deceased artist or musician again. What is the level of your grief? High, impact counseling required for an extended period. Moderate, some counseling required for short period of time. Low, no counseling required. The purchase of this book is your first step towards healing and understanding your grief. Your attendance at our workshop, will make a difference in your life. This presentation of information and education will identify each of the Twelve Principles to Grief Resilience. Give yourself permission to cry, laugh, change, rebirth, and live again!

Things I Want My Daughters to Know Elizabeth Noble,2009-03-17 How do you cope in a world without your mother? When Barbara realizes time is running out, she writes letters to her four daughters, aware that they'll be facing the trials and triumphs of life without her at their side. But how can she leave them when they still have so much growing up to do? Take Lisa, in her midthirties but incapable of making a commitment; or Jennifer, trapped in a stale marriage and buttoned up so tight she could burst. Twentysomething Amanda, the traveler, has always distanced herself from the rest of the family; and then there's Hannah, a teenage girl on the verge of womanhood about to be parted from the mother she adores. But by drawing on the wisdom in Barbara's letters, the girls might just find a way to cope with their loss. And in coming to terms with their bereavement, can they also set themselves free to enjoy their lives with all the passion and love each deserves? This heartfelt novel by bestselling author Elizabeth Noble celebrates family, friends . . . and the glorious, endless possibilities of life.

Earth Prayers Elizabeth Roberts, Elias Amidon, 2011-04-26 In forest clearings, beneath star-filled skies, in cathedrals, and before the hearth, women and men have always given voice to the impulse to celebrate the world that surrounds and sustains them. Now, as our planet faces an uncertain future, Elizabeth Roberts and Elias Amidon present a collection of prayers, poems and invocations from around the world to honor the earth in this era of heightened awareness of our relationship to the environment. From Walt Whitman, Thich Nhat Hanh and Black Elk, to Margaret Atwood, the Rig Veda and the chant of a Samar fisherman, a worldwide chorus offers songs and prayers for land, sea, and air; graces for food; and invocations, poems, and passages that draw on the common spiritual heritage of all who cherish creation. Elizabeth Roberts, Ed.D. and Elias Amidon are well known advocates for social justice and spiritual awakening. Co-founders and directors of the Boulder Institute for Nature and the Human Spirit, they are on the faculty of the Naropa Institute, and lead rites-of-passage ceremonies, spiritual retreats, and transformation programs across the United States, Europe, and Southeast Asia. Together they edited Earth Prayers and Life Prayers. "Through this extraordinary collection of prayers from all the world and from all historical periods we finally awaken to the presence of the divine that comes to us through the Earth and the entire natural world." - Thomas Berry, author of The Dream of the Earth
