Challenges and Negotiations for Women in Higher Education Pamela Cotterill, Sue Jackson, Gayle Letherby, 2007-06-28 CONCEPTUALISING CHALLENGES AND NEGOTIATIONS FOR WOMEN IN HIGHER EDUCATION 1 2 3 Pamela Cotterill, Sue Jackson and Gayle Letherby 1 2 3 Staffordshire University; Birbeck, University of London; University of Plymouth INTRODUCTION Despite the historical tradition of academia as a male space (Evans, 1995; Abbott et al, 2005; Stanley, 1997; Letherby, 2003) it is possible to argue that the expansion of higher education in the 1980s and 1990s benefited women more than it did men. By 1995 there were two and a half times more women in the academy than in 1970/1 (Abbott et al 2005), and in the decade to follow the numbers of women undergraduate students had overtaken men with a substantial minority of these being older, non-standard entrants. Furthermore, as Paula J Caplan (1997: 3) argues: Visions of the academic life draw us women toward it, picturing an intellectual community whose members search with passion and integrity for Truth and Knowledge. We imagine that in academia we shall find freedom from bias, freedom from worldly struggles of power and wealth, freedom to choose what to study and what to say, and an environment characterized by tolerance and openness, where everyone's energy is focused on the open exploration of ideas. However, whilst this may be the vision for some women, it is important not to view this widening of female participation in higher education through 'rose tinted glasses'.

My Lecturer My Husband : KEIKO PUBLISHER Zihan,2019-08-09 Dijodohkan? Mereka bukanlah pasangan yang sempurna. Bukan juga pasangan yang saling kenal, apalagi saling cinta. Mereka hanyalah dua insan yang terjebak di sebuah pernyataan yang menurut mereka sangat gila, yaitu “PERJODOHAN”. Gila bukan?. Dan yang paling gila, mereka adalah seorang dosen dan mahasiswi yang berada di kampus yang sama, bahkan belajar dan mengajar di jurusan yang sama. Apakah kehidupan mereka akan indah seperti suami istri pada umumnya?. Atau malah sebaliknya yang hanya memegang prinsip masing masing bahwa hubungan mereka hanya sebatas perjodohan bodoh yang tidak di dasari oleh cinta. Bukankah pernikahan Seharusnya di dasari oleh sebuah rasa cinta?. Hanya waktu yang akan menjelaskan dengan baik alur cerita kehidupan mereka.

Memoirs of a Gurkha Wife During Lockdown Lila Seling Mabo,2022-02-24 Lila Seling Mabo became a qualified teacher and later promoted to head teacher of Dharma Bhakta Primary school in Oyam, Panchathar Nepal. When she first arrived in the United Kingdom from Nepal with her British Army husband Shree Prasad Mabo. she had to start from scratch. Unable to use her formal Nepali qualifications she faced many obstacles and was often left home alone with her small children. She endured many challenges as an Army (Gurkha) wife but she was determined to carry on her studies and voluntary work whilst caring for her family. In a collection of diary entries beginning in March 2020, Seling Mabo details her life during lockdown as the pandemic ravaged the world. Her insightful comments her personal experiences cover during the two hundred and twenty-eight days of lockdown and two hundred and forty-four days of Covid-19. Dan, ada Sammy, pria yang merasa memiliki sejuta pesona, memiliki kepercayaan diri tinggi bisa menaklukkan semua wanita. Boom or Bust Sheena B. Stief, Kristen L. Figgins, Rebecca Day Babcock, 2021-04-01 A vast number of studies have documented the economic and geological effects of oil production, but the impact of boom-and-bust cycles on individuals and communities has received less attention. Boom or Bust remedies this gap by highlighting the personal experiences of those directly affected in an economy dominated by oil and natural gas production. The Permian Basin is one of the largest oil-producing regions in the United States. People who live there have benefited from explosive growth, only to see opportunities vanish with sudden industry downturns. In 2016, the National Endowment for the Humanities funded a grant for the study and collection of energy narratives in this economically volatile region. Boom or Bust derives from that community initiative and offers a unique contribution to the developing field of energy humanities. The oil-field industry may seem to be all about numbers, but as Boom or Bust demonstrates, residents of oil-and-gas country, whether they work in the oil field or not, are at the mercy of an ever-shifting economy. When the price of oil rises, companies move in and newcomers flood the area, expanding the employment force. And as the population booms, so does the infrastructure of cities. When prices drop, though, families must make difficult choices: whether to stay put or follow the oil to another location. With the ensuing declines in population, small businesses close their doors and unemployment levels rise. Despite the inevitable declines and despite the increase in alternative energy resources, many West Texans feel a sense of pride that borders on patriotism. Boom or Bust reveals the full complexity of boomtown culture.
