Silhouette Carin Hart,2024-04-23 Don't look out your window-because you might not like what you see... Simone I can't escape him. I thought I did. When I slipped off one night, leaving everything in my old life behind, I was ready to sacrifice it all if only to leave him behind, too. But, like always, my ex chases after me. That's what he does, after all. Holding to the vows I was too young and naive to understand, William Burke will have me 'til death do us part. And then, almost immediately, it does-when Will is slaughtered in a back alley. He haunts my dreams. Stars in my nightmares. I see him everywhere, hear his voice in my head. I look out my window and he's there. Even dead, I can't escape him... And that's when I look out my window and realize that it isn't Will watching me from the shadows. It's another man. A stranger. A silhouette. And a killer. Because he's not just watching me. He wants me more than Will did... enough that he'll kill for me. Stalk me. Take me. And I kind of want him to... Jake They say the third time's the charm-and whoever they are, they better be right. I lost Casey. Heather... that was a tragedy. And now I want Simone. I refuse to give up on Simone. So she wears another man's ring. He torments her, and she's in need of a hero. I can be that for her-I can be anything for her-but when she doesn't seem quite that impressed with my gift, I realize I need to get to know my sweet vixen a little better before I make her mine. And that's exactly what I do. From infiltrating her life to sneaking into her house, I'm here, I'm there, I'm everywhere... and she can't escape me. More importantly, by the time I've done everything I can to convince her there's no one better for her than me, she won't want to... Do you know what's more dangerous than the shadows outside your door?When he gets tired of watching-and let's himself inside...

Dragonfly Carin Hart,2024-06-18 What happens when the head of the Libellula crime family becomes obsessed with a woman who has spent the last year plotting to bring him down? Why, he blackmails her into becoming his bride, of course... Savannah Five years ago, the Libellula Family ruined my life. It doesn't matter who was responsible. I blamed the man who created his gang of thugs: Damien Libellula himself. If it wasn't for him giving free rein to his soldiers to pass their funny money through my store, I wouldn't have been accused of money laundering-and counterfeiting. I was a naive twenty-five-year-old then. Four years in a minimum-security prison later, and I'm out for revenge. I changed my name. My hair. My accent. My life. And I did that all because my plan to get revenge on Damien? I'm going to stalk him. Infiltrate my way into his life in any way I can. I'm going to make him trust me. Maybe even love me. I'm going to seduce him-and then I'm going to kill him. At least, that was the plan. But Damien, he has a different one. Before I can do any of that, he makes me his wife. Damien I thought it was amusing at first. The gorgeous brunette who followed me everywhere, too stunning to hide in any crowd. Then, when I grew impatient to see what it was she wanted with me, I approached her-and she stabbed me in my side. Another man might be put off by something like that. Not me. I've always liked my women feisty, and Savannah's murderous side was so refreshing in a world where everyone bows down to me. At that moment, I decided I would do everything to bring her to her knees. Following a page out of my old rival's book, I made her a deal: she goes back to prison-and that's assuming she survives my Family long enough to be charged for attempted murder-or she gives up her freedom and becomes my bride. I know she only chooses the second option because she thinks she can get close enough to kill me again. I must say, I'm looking forward to her trying... especially when I'll certainly enjoy showing her just why she shouldn't.

The Devil's Bargain Eddie Feliciano,2023-11-03 In The Devil's Bargain: The Dark Cost of Desire, Susan's tale unfolds as a severe reminder of the dangerous line between ambition and desire. This gripping story invites readers into a world where wishes come at a formidable price, and the human soul is the currency. Susan, once fascinated by the tempting allure of her deepest desires, makes a pact that seems to promise the fulfillment of her wildest dreams. Each wish granted by the mysterious and captivating Devil carries with it the echoes of a longing heart, but also the shadows of unforeseen consequences. Her journey is a dance with destiny, a game of cosmic stakes where every choice is a thread in the complex tapestry of fate. As Susan's wishes spiral into a chaotic symphony of joy and despair, she begins to see the fragile beauty of her own humanity. In a twist of fate, the Devil himself is caught off guard, faced with a wish that could change the very nature of their eternal accord. What unfolds is a profound narrative of redemption, sacrifice, and the eternal question: What is a soul truly worth? The Devil's Bargain: The Dark Cost of Desire is not just a story, but an exploration of life's paradoxes- where saving one's soul might mean losing it, where the pursuit of happiness can lead to its opposite, and where the ultimate wish may reveal the deepest truths of the heart. Join Susan as she confronts the Devil, challenges destiny, and discovers that the most powerful magic lies within the strength of the human spirit.
