My Memories, My Thoughts Herein Geraldine V. Griffith,2014-04-11 I now present to you a compilation of what I have written sporadically and gathered through the years.

Healing from Childhood Abuse John J. Lemoncelli,2012-04-06 Written directly to individuals who have experienced childhood trauma, this book provides essential information that allows victims to begin recovering from their immense pain and suffering, and empowers them to examine their specific issues in order to become a true survivor. The American Medical Association currently estimates at least one in every five adults suffered abuse as a child. While childhood abuse or trauma is certainly not a new issue, it has reached epidemic proportion. Yet most clinicians have not been sufficiently trained to appreciate or understand the devastating long-term impact of abuse on the total person. John J. Lemoncelli, EdD, authored this book to enable those who suffer in silence to understand what happened, take control, and begin and maintain a program of recovery. It helps those abused in childhood to grasp how their experience impacted their development and the extent to which it negatively affects their present lives; encourages them to let go of the belief that they are damaged, dirty, or at fault; and provides an effective strategy for externalizing the source of their anguish, rather than blaming themselves. The author outlines several stages and common issues that may need to be addressed, but as no one size fits all treatment is possible, he provides strategies that empower victims to identify the specific sources of their pain.

Sixteenth-Century Poetry Gordon Braden,2008-04-15 This fully-annotated anthology of sixteenth-century English verse features generous selections from the canonical poets, alongside judicious selections from lesser-known authors. Includes complete works or substantial extracts of longer poems wherever possible, including Book III of the 'Faerie Queene' and the whole of 'Astrophil and Stella'. Covers a range of genres, including the love lyric, mythological narrative, sacred poetry and political poetry. Encourages readers to discover unusual and interesting connections and contrasts between poems and poets. Detailed annotations facilitate close reading of the poems.

The Miracle Path Carolyn Gable,David Rohr,2010-12 This beautiful book is filled with journal entries from over 12,000 people who walked the Miracle Path in Lake Geneva, WI and left their words and little bit of their hearts in the notebook of hope. As a struggling waitress and single mom, Carolyn worked tirelessly so she and her children can enjoy a few days in Lake Geneva, WI each summer. During these visits she would often walk around the lake gazing at the incredible mansion during the shoreline. Year after year she would say a silent prayer that she wanted to own a house on the lake someday and if that day ever arrived she would make the house welcoming to all. Twenty years later the prayer has been answered, she purchased the house located at 700 South Lakeshore Dr. now had to uphold her end of the promise... Immediately after purchasing the home she had Expect Miracle incorporated across the front gate. After receiving extremely positive feedback from complete strangers and how those simple words gave them the strength to persevere she set her focus on the walking path by the lake. In 2008 Carolyn hired a muralist paint famous quotations on the planks of the fence, the response from visitors to the path was extraordinary! A year later she added a notebook inviting visitors to write whatever their heart desired. She also had a brass bell with the only instruction to ring it and make miracles happen. This book is a collection of some of the fence quotations and journal entries from the 12,000 people who have left their words and a little bit of their hearts in the notebook of hope. Expect A Miracle!

Hey! I am Sorry! Vidushi Agarwal, 2022-02-24 Hey, I'm Sorry, was inspired by none other than the author's best friend. She never got the chance to apologize to her best friend and it was late when she realized, that the chance was gone forever. This book is a movement to make people realize how important it is to ask forgiveness. It is to make one understand how even the simplest of words have the most importance. While this book was collected and put into one piece, Vidushi only thought of her best friend and seeks her forgiveness. We hope you've apologized for all your wrongs. We hope you never have anything left unsaid. We pray for compassion, and kindness to be bestowed on you.

Golden Opportunity Virginia Taylor, 2018-01-30 Some designs are timeless . . . They grew up together yet worlds apart. But a wealthy young man and a classy young woman find that some bonds can't be broken . . . The only thing Marigold Reynolds and billionaire Hagen Allbrook ever had in common was their attraction. Marigold made sure that never went anywhere by cutting ties with him six years ago. Now, however, she needs a job—and Hagen's design assistant desperately needs someone to fill in for her at his family's construction firm. Trusting that time has dimmed the electricity between them, Marigold accepts. But as she undertakes his challenging renovation of her own ancestors' home, it's soon clear she's mistaken. A year after his wife's death, Hagen is coming to terms with the past. He's as drawn to Marigold as ever, but as they finally cross long-held boundaries, a misunderstanding, and Marigold's belief that she can never measure up to his perfect wife, threatens to tear them apart once more. Hagen's only chance of winning her back is to reveal the truth about his marriage. And perhaps then Marigold will reveal a heartfelt secret of her own . . . "Taylor crafts a believable opposites-attract romance. . . . With a South Australia setting, the book's realistic Aussie dialog will transport readers to this distant locale while making Sets Appeal a fun, lighthearted departure from standard romance fare." -Library Journal

Starling Virginia Taylor, 2015-04-14 An aspiring dressmaker, orphaned Starling Smith is accustomed to fighting for her own survival. But when she's offered a year's wages to temporarily pose as a wealthy man's bride, she suspects ulterior motives. She can't lose the chance to open her own shop, but she won't be any man's lover, not even handsome, infuriating Alisdair Seymour's... To prevent his visiting sister from parading potential brides in front of him, Alisdair has decided to present a fake wife. He lost his heart once, and had it broken—he doesn't intend to do it again. But stubborn, spirited Starling is more alluring than he bargained for, and Alisdair will risk everything he has to prove his love is true... Set against the sweeping backdrop of 1866 South Australia, Starling is a novel of cherished dreams and powerful desires, and the young woman bold enough to claim them both... 74,855 Words

Ella Virginia Taylor, 2015-10-13 In this Australian historical romance, a woman struggling to help her family survive financially falls for her hired hand, who is secretly a wealthy heir. Ella Beaufort knew better than to rely on a sexy stranger. But with two sisters to support on the modest earnings of the family sheep station, she accepts shearer Cal Lynton's help—along with his intoxicating kiss. The most Ella can hope for is an affair. Something a woman in her situation wouldn't dare—or would she? Heir to his family fortune, Charlton Alfred Landon Lynton abandoned his privileged life to prove his independence. He doesn't have time for a woman, but once he woos the lovely Ella into his bed, he is ready to make her his wife...until she shocks him with her refusal, claiming she can only marry a rich man! Angry and brokenhearted, the heir in disguise leaves the beautiful gold-digger behind . . . But amid the breathtaking landscape of South Australia, Ella and Cal are destined to meet again. Will their heated reunion lead to cruel confrontation—or the kind of passion that lasts a lifetime?

The Kid Stays in the Picture Robert Evans, 1994 The motion picture producer describes his early career as an actor, liaisons with actresses, rise to powerful studio executive, time in a mental institution, drug use, loss of status in Hollywood, and rise back to power.

Telling My Love Lies Keath Fraser, 1996 Telling My Love Lies begins romantically in the hot and prickly cornfields of pubescent youth, lambent with country-and-western songs of the narrator's past, and concludes in operatic San Francisco, the refuge of an older narrator in elegiac flight from an imprisoning tire farm and the taint of glory holes. In between, in these doubly imagined stories, a lover of rock 'n' roll flies to a Mexican Club Med seeking solace for her lost voice; the ex-botany teacher who's a deported war criminal jets back to Holland in disgrace and handcuffs; a retired doctor and his wife drift out of control in a balloon's gondola over the Gulf of Thailand; while a socialist Sikh politician takes rhetorical flight in his own soaring craft above a river. This is the same river where another character, dying, fishes illegally for the timeless sturgeon. What anchors these nine interlocking stories and one novella is the community of Perumbur, alive with lakes and hot springs, blueberry farms and cold wars. Keath Fraser's anthology of richly painted characters is an ardent, beautiful celebration of their yearning and of the story-telling imagination.

When Husband and Wife Become Mom & Dad Elisa Morgan, Carol Kuykendall, 1999 Morgan and Kuykendall of MOPS (Mothers of Preschoolers) provide information every marriage needs in the transition from life as a couple to life with children.

A Relationship for a Lifetime Kelly E. Johnson, 2001 A book on everything readers need to know to create a love that lasts for a lifetime. It's therapy without having to go to the office, based on timeless and universal themes.
