Creative Intelligence Consciousness-Based Education Association, 2003-01 This textbook presents the 16 principles of the Science of Creative Intelligence as formulated by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. Each lesson is devoted to one of the 16 principles and has three sections: town and countryside, nation, and the world, for a total of 48 lessons in all. Each lesson is accompanied by a detailed illustration and explanation. There are four sections that demonstrate how the principle applies to (1) scientific research on the Transcendental Meditation and TM-Sidhi programs, (2) personal experience of the Transcendental Meditation and TM-Sidhi programs, (3) Maharishi Vedic Science, and (4) modern science. Lastly, there is a section presenting suggested activities for the students based upon the study of the principle. At the end of the study of each principle (each group of three lessons) there is a quote from a famous person that further emphasizes the universal and fundamental nature of the principle. The introduction at the front of the book outlines Maharishi's Science of Creative Intelligence, Consciousness-Based Education, Discovery of Veda and Vedic Literature in Human Physiology, Tradition and Culture, The Maharishi Effect, and the structure of the course of study. There is an index at the back of the book.
