Libreria Hyunam-dong. Rimedi per l'anima Hwang Bo-Reum,2024-10-09 Un romanzo potente e curatissimo, in cui niente è lasciato al caso. Un balsamo per la vita di tutti i giorni. Yeongju ha fatto tutto quello che ci si aspettava da lei: andare all'università, sposare un brav'uomo e trovare un impiego rispettabile. Ed è andata avanti così per molti anni... ma quando ha cominciato a svegliarsi con il terrore di recarsi in ufficio, ha capito che c'era qualcosa che non andava. Si chiama sindrome da burnout e travolge le persone portandole al limite. Esaurita dallo stress e da un matrimonio insoddisfacente, Yeongju decide allora di abbandonare tutto per realizzare il suo sogno più grande, quello di aprire una libreria. Hyu in coreano vuol dire riposo, quindi non può che essere un segno del destino l'aver trovato un fondo nel quartiere di Hyunam- dong. Scaffale dopo scaffale, volume dopo volume, Yeongju avvia la sua nuova attività creando un luogo caldo e accogliente, dove i suoi clienti possano rifugiarsi. Ognuno con le proprie delusioni e i propri problemi. C'è Minjun, il barista che cerca di dare senso alle sue giornate; Jeongseo che usa il lavoro a maglia per sfogare la rabbia; Mincheol, un giovane pieno di dubbi e domande sul suo futuro; e infine Seungu, blogger e scrittore, che sembra avere un interesse particolare nei confronti della bella proprietaria. Gestire una libreria non è però così semplice, e tra presentazioni, contenuti per i social e quotidiana amministrazione, il rischio è quello di perdere nuovamente l'equilibrio e farsi sopraffare, perciò è importante non perdere di vista l'obiettivo: diventare una persona migliore.

The Moon Glow Bookshop Dongwon Seo, 2025-11-06 What if you could turn the pages of your own life, like the pages of your favourite book? Somewhere along the ordinary alleys you pass by every day, a mysterious shop appears between all the other familiar buildings. Surely, you didn't see it yesterday or the day before. A large sign reads 'The Moon Glow Bookshop' but it seems to have a smaller poster on its window saying, 'If only your life were like a book'. The faint glow of light from the shop somehow seems to offer you comfort. From just looking at the poster, you can't really tell if it's a bookstore, a bar, or a cafe. Upon opening the door and entering, the first thing that catches your eye are the shelves filled with bottles. It seems to be a bar, and as you take a sip of your desired cocktail, you feel yourself slowly entering a different world... Boreum, a moon rabbit, and Moon, the guardian of a magical library, have abandoned their jobs as celestial custodians and started operating a mysterious shop on Earth called The Moon Glow Bookshop. At the end of a weary day, around the time when the moon rises, people make their way into the shop and choose cocktails to relive their most regrettable moments. When guests choose a drink, they're served a matching dish as part of the magical experience. The dish that goes well with the cocktail you chose could be a simple egg omelette or perhaps a ripe, juicy tomato that you cannot bear to eat because of its perfect roundness. The result could be a coincidence or destiny. From a musician who lost her mother due to a perilous mistake and is fated to lose her lover and father again, to a novelist who has become obsessed with success, and a working adult who, obsessed with making money, completely forgot their childhood dreams - everybody goes looking for answers in The Moon Glow Bookshop.

Café. Waiting. Love. Giddens Ko, 2026-08-27 'Dreams that are laughable when said aloud are what's worth pursuing. Even if you fall, you do so with much poise.' In a small, enigmatic café in Hsinchu, Taiwan, everyone is waiting for someone. Whether it's love, a second chance, or a sign of something greater, the café is more than just an ordinary coffee shop; it's a place for serendipitous encounters. Si-Ying, a young woman working at the café, harbors a secret crush on the handsome Ze-Yu, who is always surrounded by a string of girlfriends. However, her life takes a turn when she befriends the quirky and earnest A-Tuo, who introduces her to a vibrant cast of characters who aren't what they seem to be, including a triad boss who is a cinephile and a laundromat boss who whips up exquisite dishes worthy of the Michelin stars. As Si Ying's friendship with A-Tuo deepens, she begins to realize that her true feelings may not be for Ze-Yu after all. Within the café's walls, moments of quiet reflection reveal profound truths, and amidst the wait for someone else, Si-Ying learns that sometimes the most significant journey is the one inward.  Translated from the Taiwanese by Shanna Tan **

Plant Lady Minyoung Kang, 2026-08-04 In the heart of a quiet town, a young woman tends to her plant shop, but beneath the surface of her lush, green sanctuary lies something far darker.... Will you dare to disrespect her plants? Tucked away in the corner of a neighborhood in Dosan, South Korea, is the Plant Shop. Shop owner Yoohee has started anew, and her meticulously grown foliage thrives under her tender care. To both her customers and herself, Plant Shop is a refuge, where petunias and marigolds bloom and the air itself is like an elixir of peace. By day, Yoohee dispenses advice on gardening, but she also finds herself offering a special service off the clock. Women who are at their wits' end come to her about a man they hope might disappear from their lives. Pulling extra hours is taxing, but Yoohee has encountered—and dealt with—these kind of men in her own life, men who treated her (and her beloved plants) with utter disrespect. So as night falls, Yoohee trades her apron for a shovel and a hoe and disappears into her moonlit garden. There, she buries not just the remains of the day, but also the bloody remnants of a few unfortunate encounters. As men begin to disappear...will anyone ever suspect the Plant Lady? A highly acclaimed novel from South Korea, Plant Lady brings atmospheric tension and delicate humor to a story of obsession and misogyny that will keep you rooted right to its simmering last page.
