Learning environments for pupil referral units Great Britain: Department for Education and Skills,2007-02-28 This publication provides guidelines and case study examples of effective practice in PRU accommodation. It is intended to assist those involved in providing PRU accommodation such as local authorities, education advisers, architects, engineers and building contractors. This document also outlines the legal requirements and minimum expectations for providing a broad, balanced and relevant curriculum and for supporting pupils' well being. The provision of a good quality learning environment is essential to supporting these aims in the Every Child Matters policy.
