The dishes of the Asiatics are much superior, indeed, to those of many other nations, if we may believe the accounts of travelers. In China, for example, the cooks have invented some queer...

forest, at a time when his heart knew no care, and when the world, in the fairy-land of his fancy, was full of love and beauty. The reader will take them as they are, with all their rustic imperfections. As the author has not aspired to climb the dizzy hills of Poesy, but has been content to wander in the secluded valley, plucking here a leaf and there a flower, with which to form his humble wreath, it will not be thought that he seeks.
