Proceedings of the 2nd International and Interdisciplinary Conference on Image and Imagination Enrico Cicalò, 2020-03-17 This book gathers peer-reviewed papers presented at the 1st International and Interdisciplinary Conference on Image and Imagination (IMG 2019), held in Alghero, Italy, in July 2019. Highlighting interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research concerning graphics science and education, the papers address theoretical research as well as applications, including education, in several fields of science, technology and art. Mainly focusing on graphics for communication, visualization, description and storytelling, and for learning and thought construction, the book provides architects, engineers, computer scientists, and designers with the latest advances in the field, particularly in the context of science, arts and education.

From the chanson française to the canzone d'autore in the 1960s and 1970s Rachel Haworth, 2016-03-03 The similarities between the chanson française and the canzone d'autore have been often noted but never fully explored. Both genres are national forms which involve the figure of the singer-songwriter, both experienced their golden age of production in the post-World War II period and both are enduringly popular, still accounting for a large proportion of record sales in their respective countries. Rachel Haworth looks beyond these superficial similarities, and investigates the nature of the relationship between the two genres. Taking a multidisciplinary approach, encompassing textual analysis of song lyrics, cultural history and popular music studies, Haworth considers the different ways in which French and Italian song is thought about, written about and constructed. Through an in-depth study of the discourse surrounding chanson and the canzone d'autore, the volume analyses the development of the genres' rules and rhetoric, identifying the key themes of Authority, Authenticity and Influence. The book finally considers the legacy of major artists, looking at modern perspectives on Georges Brassens, Jacques Brel, Léo Ferré, Fabrizio De André and Giorgio Gaber, ultimately affording a deeper understanding of the notions of quality and value in the context of chanson française and the canzone d'autore.

A New Paradigm for Translators of Literary and Non-Literary Texts Michela Canepari, 2022-07-18 Over the years, translation has increasingly become a necessary tool to function in contemporary society. Based on years of research and teaching activity within the field, this book offers a useful and effective paradigm for the translation of different types of texts, guiding readers towards the realisation of effective translation projects. The several contrastive analyses presented and the suggestions offered throughout will help readers appreciate the implications and consequences of every translation choice, encouraging them to develop reading and translating skills applicable to the variety of texts they face in everyday life, from novels to comic books, films, and television series.

Populism, Media and Education Maria Ranieri, 2016-01-22 Based on a major research project funded by the European Commission, Populism, Media and Education studies how discriminatory stereotypes are built online with a particular focus on right-wing populism. Globalization and migration have led to a new era of populism and racism in Western countries, rekindling traditional forms of discrimination through innovative means. New media platforms are being seen by populist organizations as a method to promote hate speech and unprecedented forms of proselytism. Race, gender, disability and sexual orientation are all being used to discriminate and young people are the preferred target for populist organizations and movements. This book examines how media education can help to deconstruct such hate speech and promote young people's full participation in media-saturated societies. Drawing on rich examples from Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, France, Italy, Slovenia, and the UK - countries characterized by different political and cultural contexts - Populism, Media and Education addresses key questions about the meaning of new populism, the nature of e-engagement, and the role of education and citizenship in the digital century. With its international and interdisciplinary approach, this book is essential reading for academics and students in the areas of education, media studies, sociology, cultural studies, political sciences, discrimination and gender studies.

Humanistic Perspectives in Happiness Research Luísa Magalhães, Maria José Ferreira Lopes, Bruno Nobre, João Carlos Onofre Pinto, 2024-05-31 This volume provides innovative perspectives on the scholarly connection between the humanities and happiness, and considers the narrative expressions of happiness and recent investigations about happiness, its metrics, and objective insights about human wellbeing. This volume relates intemporal humanistic values to views across social and behavioural sciences, and thereby covers a broad interdisciplinary frame, from philosophy, psychology, literary studies, to the communication sciences. The philosophers in this volume discuss the achievement of happiness through the cultivation of virtue, as well as the logic of the gift as an experience of personal fulfilment and the fact that happiness is inextricably linked to hope. Their chapters take on the approach of the permanent human struggle to generate global horizons of happiness and thus attain eternal bliss. Scholars from other fields of the humanities and communication sciences consider the positive messages of environmental happiness in virtual platforms, where the Homo digitalis finds happiness at the click of a button, often under the endorsement of celebrities, or under the visual fruition of playful objects. They also present the intertextual memory of happiness as a condition for humanistic research. Finally, this volume considers the sphere of education as the best place in which to apply the results of sustainable happiness measurement and research, and to realize this complementary, humanistic perspective on happiness research.

L'entrance des auteurs africains dans le champ de la bande dessinée européenne de la langue française Sandra Federici, 2019-12-16 Après des débuts souvent précaires dans leurs pays d'origine, certains auteurs africains de bande dessinée sont arrivés à publier en Europe et, pour quelques-uns, à y bénéficier d'une solide reconnaissance. Mais si les conditions de départ semblent être similaires pour tous les auteurs, pourquoi certains arrivent-ils à publier dans les maisons d'édition qui ont un rayonnement international, alors que d'autres restent dépendant des commandes du secteur associatif, des fanzines ou des publications confidentielles à l'enseigne des micro-éditeurs ? L'approche sociologique permet ici une analyse rigoureuse des conditions de production, de circulation et de réception du neuvième art africain.

Apocalittici e integrati Umberto Eco, 2011-04-12 Quando questo libro è apparso in prima edizione nel 1964 Apocalittici e integrati era solo un titolo. Da allora è diventata una espressione di uso corrente, una opposizione quasi proverbiale. Quando il libro è apparso, applicare strumenti di indagine rigorosa ad argomenti come il fumetto, la canzone di consumo, la narrativa popolare, suonava, alle orecchie di molti, quasi oltraggioso: oggi nessuno potrebbe avanzare alcun dubbio sul fatto che l'enorme diffusione dei mezzi di comunicazione di massa abbia trasformato il cuore della nostra società, ne abbia permeato l'ideologia, e fornisca a tutti strumenti che fanno ormai parte del modo di parlare e di pensare quotidiano. Molti di questi saggi sono entrati nelle bibliografie internazionali sull'argomento, anche se alcuni risentono del clima e della problematica di quegli anni
