Brian Lennon

Evolution of a Movement Mary Cresp, 2022-12-01 This is of course a story of how a religious order gave new expression to its distinctive values and tradition in establishing a wider community of lay associates. The Sisters of St Joseph from the outset were practical, adaptable and relatively informal - focused on meeting needs where they saw them and stretching themselves thin to do so. Mary Cresp captures these Josephite values beautifully as she unfolds the development of the order's Associates/Companions. But it's not a book just about the Josephites. It's much more - a case study in how Catholic communities in several countries have responded to the challenges of the Second Vatican Council and to changing times. For that it's well worth a read. Peter Cahalan PhD - formerly CEO of the History Trust of South Australia. In her history of Josephite Associates over 40 years, Mary Cresp rsj informs her scholarly experience and thoroughness with documentation and contributions from more than 200 people who were themselves involved in creating that story. She describes the evolution of Josephite Associates to Josephite Companions as a story of relationships. It is a story with lessons about relationships and formation, but also about persistence of vision, about living with unresolved questions, about fostering the emergence of new leadership and above all about walking together with joy in a shared baptismal mission. Anne Benjamin, Honorary Professor, Australian Catholic University. Consultant to Biographical Dictionary of Australian Catholic Educators.

What Does it Mean to be a Saint? Josephine Laffin, 2010 In 2010 Mary MacKillop became the first Australian citizen to be officially proclaimed a saint by the Catholic Church. This event, and the long canonisation process which preceded it, has received much coverage in the Australian media. Yet confusion persists over what exactly it means to be a saint. In this book scholars from the Catholic Theological College of South Australia and the Flinders University School of Theology share reflections from different perspectives: historical, biblical, philosophical, theological, ethical, spiritual, liturgical and personal. Veneration of St Mary MacKillop is set in the context of a tradition which can be traced back to Christian martyrs in the ancient Roman Empire, and which, it is argued, is still meaningful today.

From North to South Helen F. Bergin, 2013-08-31 From North to South brings together the interests in Edward Schillebeeckx of eight theologians from Australia, New Zealand and Malaysia. In each chapter, theologians dialogue from a southern context with one of Schillebeeckx's themes or methods. Themes such as suffering and negative contrast experiences, political holiness, ecclesiology, God and the cross, resurrection and hope, and theology and culture are addressed. Attention to Schillebeeckx's hermeneutics lies at the heart of several chapters but is generally woven throughout. Contributors bring their particular southern contexts into serious dialogue with Schillebeeckx's northern thought. The book concludes with a response to the south from North American theologian, Kathleen McManus OP. In short, the book witnesses to the ongoing challenge and stimulation of Edward Schillebeeckx's theology.

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2,000-year history, from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today. From the mid-twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia, Africa, and Latin America, and the majority of the world's Christians are now nonwhite and non-Western. The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions. The volumes include maps, images, and a detailed timeline of key events. The phrases "Global Christianity" and "World Christianity" are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved—this encyclopedia, with its more than 500 entries, aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing, how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions, and how the faith is changing worldwide.

The Pope Speaks, 1995 Includes recent papal letters, addresses and other major Church documents.

St Joseph's Island Josephine Margaret Brady, 2012-08-30 There has been little written about Tenison Woods who as a significant figure in Australian Catholic Church life at the time of St Mary Mackillop, Australia's first Catholic Saint. This is a story about the work of the Sisters of St Joseph, an Australian Catholic Religious Order of women, founded by St Mary Mackillop, in Tasmania. An intriguing story of a group of women who were not part of the Centralised Josephite Sisters under Mary Mackillop, who for a variety of reasons were under the diocesan Catholic Bishop in Tasmania. The book documents their 125 year history from foundation right through to Vatican approval of the being brought under the Federation of Josephite Sisters in Australia.

Origins, 1998

Julian Tenison Woods O'Brien Roderick, 2025-12-31

Mary MacKillop Margaret Paton, 2010 Blessed Mary MacKillop (15 January 1842 - 8 August 1909), of Scottish descent, was an Australian Roman Catholic nun who, together with Father Julian Tenison Woods, founded the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart. This book delves deeply into what inspired this great Australian.

Mary Mackillop, 2010

Mary MacKillop Bishop E. James Cuskelly, 2010 Written by the late Bishop Cuskelly, MSC, in 1998, this piece retains its freshness and enduring relevance. Explores how Mary MacKillop lived in God's presence, brought the Good News to the poor, went the way of the cross and loved her enemies. An ideal work for Catholics wishing to know more about Australia's first saint.

Mary MacKillop in Challenging Times 1883-1899 Saint Mary MacKillop, 2006-01-01 Between the ages of 41 and 57 Mary MacKillop experienced many challenges. In these letters, especially those to trusted friends, we meet Mary MacKillop: a woman who merits acknowledgement as Australia's first saint.

The Story of Mary MacKillop Bernadette Doyle, Lila El-Hage, Anne Walsh, 1995 Sisters of St. Joseph of the Sacred Heart.

Mary MacKillop Osmund Thorpe, 1994

Mary MacKillop and Her Early Companions Saint Mary MacKillop, Trustees of the Sisters of Saint Joseph - North Sydney, 2013

Mary MacKillop 1873 Sheila McCreanor, 2016 This is the sixth collection to be published. It focusses on the time not long after Mary MacKillop's excommunication when she was encouraged to go to Rome to seek approval for the Rule of the Sisters of St Joseph. Mary set off alone, travelling incognito, with little money and no knowledge of where to stay or how she would travel. Her letters and her diary during 1873 show her amazing trust in the Providence of God as well as her very human feelings of loneliness, her worry about the Sisters back in Australia and her delight in visiting the holy places especially St Peter's Basilica. Little did Mary MacKillop dream that in 2010 thousands would gather in St Peter's Square to see her photo hanging from the Basilica as she was proclaimed a Saint by Pope Benedict XVI.

Called to Love Felicity O'Brien, 1993 Biography of Mary MacKillop (1842-1909), the founder of the Sisters of St Joseph, or 'Josephites', a Catholic religious order for women, devoted to the education of poor children. Sr MacKillop is expected to become Australia's first official Catholic saint. Includes a selection of quotations by Sr MacKillop, references and a brief bibliography. The British author has written the biographies of John Henry Newman and Margaret Sinclair in the same series.

Mary MacKillop - A Window of Hope Monica Cavanagh, 2010-09-15 Mother Mary MacKillop will be canonised a Saint in October 2010 by the Pope at a ceremony in Rome and watched around the world. This is an official book from the Sisters of St Joseph, Mary MacKillop's religious order, for the general public as well as Catholics. Written by Monica Cavanagh, a member of the order. This succinct book shows .....

Mary MacKillop Judith M. Steer, 2008 The focus of this small book is on how Blessed Mary MacKillop can speak to our lives today. As we face various challenges - new beginnings, endings, creative moments - we can learn from Mary's responses to such situations. This woman who managed trouble and suffering, who grew as a person by knowing and accepting her own personal strengths and weaknesses, and who trusted God through it all, is a guiding light in the twenty-first century, just as she was in the nineteenth. The book is enhanced by evocative illustrations prepared by Dorothy Woodward RSJ.

Mary Magdalene and the Gardener Brian Lennon, 2021-07-21 Mary Magdalene might be the most understood person in the story of Jesus. Yet, Mary was also the first person to whom Jesus appeared after his resurrection. It was Mary who first took the good news of his world-changing resurrection to the apostles. What can the story of Mary Magdalene and her relationship with Jesus, the 'Gardener', tell us about the future of women in the Church? Examining the spiritual significance of Mary's relationship to Jesus, the trans-historical significance of the resurrection and the contemporary question of the role of women in the Church, Mary Magdalene and the Gardener is a meditation on a world changed by one word; the word that made the resurrection real was 'Mary'.
