

The Best Part Of Me

Henry Fielding

The Best Part of Me 2 A'zayler,2017-06-17 Have you ever prayed for something harder than you've ever prayed for anything, and then it happens, and you don't know if you're really ready for it? Well, so has Goody. Praying for a good man then actually getting one were two totally different things. In her mind, her world would be complete if that happened, so naturally, when it did, she was happy but then came fear. Fear of what the future would hold, or whether or not she was even good enough for her answered prayers. Lucky for her, Jerrico Blake is well equipped and intently focused on Goody and every need she has. A man with many honorable traits, Jerrico is a Godsend, but he's not to be taken lightly. Though he can withstand the toughest times with the hardest people, that doesn't mean he wants to. Desiring love and happiness as much as the next person, Goody's rejection may have worn thin. Not sure whether she's worth the fight, Jerrico second guesses his initial intentions. Will Goody's past destroy her future, or will she be woman enough to pick up her pieces and put her own future back together?

Browning's Hatreds Daniel Karlin,1993 The bitter and twisted monk of Soliloquy of the Spanish Cloister is Browning's best-known hater, but hatred was a topic to which he returned again and again in both letters and poems. Daniel Karlin has written a sensitive and original study of Browning's hatreds, and their influence on his poetry. Tracing the subtlest windings and branchings of Browning's idea of hatred through detailed discussion of key poems, the author shows how Browning's work displays an unequalled grasp of hatred as a personal emotion, as an intellectual principle, and as a source of artistic creativity. Particular attention is devoted to Browning's compulsive and compelling exploration of the duality of love and hate.
