Breathe Again Tramel Marshall, 2023-02-09 We all have good days, ok days, and horrific days. This is what we humans call, Life. One thing to be sure of is we can't always predict what will come our way. Unfortunately, life will throw us many diverse blows. Sometimes we are strong enough and can hold our ground and at other times we are not and get knocked down. What about the knockout blow? That blow that comes unexpectedly; or one that is expected, and it still knocks the wind out of you? Have you ever been in a place where you have felt like turning in the towel? Now you are on the ground wondering, can you catch your breath and rise again? You have now literally made a way of life out of living with the wind knocked out of you. You are living with it as opposed to facing it head on and conquering it. If you are honest with yourself and can see your reflection in these very words, take a walk with the author through this book. It will begin to unfold the many adversities that mankind faces along with the questions of the heart, the difficulties of changing and some solutions that will maximize your changing process.

Is There Something You Want? Dr. John McKinney, 2020-06-28 You do not need extraordinary talents to master the principles taught here in order to improve the conditions in your life. You will gain the ability to live by the laws that govern how things are manifested in the world in general and in your unique life in particular.

Metaphorical Ways of Knowing Sharon L. Pugh,Jean Wolph Hicks,1997 This book explores the subject of metaphor, using the imagery of cartography to set a course. It explores the creative aspects of thinking and learning through literature, writing, and word play, drawing connections between English and other content areas. Theory and practical applications meet in the book, linking activities and resources to current classroom concerns--to multiculturalism, imagination in reading and writing, critical thinking, and expanding language experiences. The first part of the book examines the uses of metaphor in constructing meaning. The second part takes up issues related to multiple perspectives--using metaphors to experience other lives, and exploring cultures through traditions. The third part of the book is devoted to a consideration of the history and current status of the English language and focuses on using cross-cultural stories in the English classroom, offering a number of resources for teaching multicultural literature in English. The fourth part examines the sensory experience of metaphors by seeing, hearing, tasting, smelling, and touching with the imagination. Contains 14 pages of references and an index. (NKA)
