Data-driven Multivalence in the Built Environment Nimish Bioria, 2019-07-01 This book sets the stage for understanding how the exponential escalation of digital ubiquity in the contemporary environment is being absorbed, modulated, processed and actively used for enhancing the performance of our built environment. S.M.A.R.T., in this context, is thus used as an acronym for Systems & Materials in Architectural Research and Technology, with a specific focus on interrogating the intricate relationship between information systems and associative material, cultural and socioeconomic formations within the built environment. This interrogation is deeply rooted in exploring inter-disciplinary research and design strategies involving nonlinear processes for developing meta-design systems, evidence based design solutions and methodological frameworks, some of which, are presented in this issue. Urban health and wellbeing, urban mobility and infrastructure, smart manufacturing, Interaction Design, Urban Design & Planning as well as Data Science, as prominent symbiotic domains constituting the Built Environment are represented in this first book in the S.M.A.R.T. series. The spectrum of chapters included in this volume helps in understanding the multivalence of data from a socio-technical perspective and provides insight into the methodological nuances involved in capturing, analysing and improving urban life via data driven technologies.

Corporate Real Estate Management Jan Gerard Hoendervanger, Theo van der Voordt, Jaap Wijnja, 2024-09-09 How can Corporate Real Estate managers and Facility managers translate an organisation's strategy into a real estate strategy that optimally aligns demand and supply, and adds value in a sustainable and socially responsible way? How to create a positive user experience, taking into account the diversity and dynamics of individual users' needs? How to balance different functional, experiential, architectonical and technical requirements, budget, time, and legal preconditions? This book discusses Corporate Real Estate (CRE) and Corporate Real Estate Management (CREM) from the perspective of organisations, individual users, other stakeholders, and society. It presents theories, models and methods for analysing demand and supply and the best possible match. It discusses how to implement a CRE strategy by setting up project-based business cases, developing design briefs, and managing CRE interventions and CRE operations. Finally, it describes different options for the organisational design of CREM, sourcing strategies, required competencies, and future prospects. As such, the book covers the whole life cycle of corporate real estate. It integrates knowledge from different disciplines, including corporate real estate and facility management, environmental psychology, ergonomics, business administration, and many more. The authors have decades of experience in the field, as practitioners, teachers, and researchers. Jan Gerard Hoendervanger currently works as an independent CRE consultant. Theo van der Voordt is emeritus associate professor in Corporate Real Estate and Facility Management at the Faculty of Architecture, Delft University of Technology. Jaap Wijnja is lecturer and researcher at Hanze University of Applied Sciences, Institute of Facility Management.

North American and European Perspectives on Sustainability in Higher Education Walter Leal Filho, Julie Newman, Amanda Lange Salvia, Laís Viera Trevisan, Laura Corazza, 2025-04-02 The scientific, cultural and diplomatic relations between Europe and its partners in North America are very strong. From a scientific point of view, this long-standing cooperation has taken place across a wide range of areas. They include the field of sustainability, where North America and Europe are working hand in hand, seeking solutions to the many regional and global problems currently faced. Against this backdrop and in order to facilitate a broad discussion on the contribution of higher education institutions from both sides of the Atlantic towards a more sustainable future, this book is being produced. The book gathers inputs from universities and research organizations on the one hand, but also from companies and enterprises on the other, from Europe and North America, working on matters related to sustainable development in a higher education context. It also provides a platform for the dissemination of information on the latest initiatives, paving the way for technology transfer and networking. Furthermore, the book intends to provide a fertile basis upon which European and North American organizations may cooperate more closely in this key area. Last but not least, a further aim of the book is to present methodological approaches and experiences deriving from case studies and projects, which aim to show how sustainability in North America and in Europe may be enhanced in practice.

Imprimer le monde Marie-Ange Brayer,2017 À l'occasion de l'exposition Imprimer le monde - du 15 mars au 19 juin 2017- les Éditions HYX et les Éditions du Centre Pompidou, interrogent, avec Imprimer le monde l'émergence dans la création artistique de ce nouvel artefact numérique imprimé en 3D. Les technologies numériques ont bouleversé la conception et la fabrication des objets, transformant la pratique des designers des architectes et des artistes. Quel est le statut de l'auteur à l'ère de la production de ces objets non standards, à la fois uniques et produits industriellement ? Quel est le statut de cet objet imprimé en 3D, tout à la fois objet du quotidien, objet technologique, œuvre d'art, objet de design, prototype d'architecture ? De l'échelle du micro (imprimer des cellules vivantes) à celle du macro (imprimer des architectures à l'échelle 1:1), du visible à l'infra-visible, la fabrication additive soulève de multiples questions.

Paediatric Exercise Science and Medicine Neil Armstrong, Willem Van Mechelen, 2000 In recent years, there has been an explosion of interest worldwide, and a growing recognition of the importance and relevance of sports for children and adolescents. Paediatric Exercise Science and Medicine is the definitive text on an area that is rapidly growing in interest. Written by a team of international authorities, the book explains the principles of developmental exercise science, assessment of performance, the promotion of young people's health and well-being, and the clinical diagnosis and management of sports injuries in children and adolescents. Aimed primarily at exercise and sports scientists, sports medicine physicians, paediatricians, and clinicians dealing with young athletes, the book will also be of interest to physical educators and physiotherapists.

Fact Oriented Modeling with FCO-IM Jan Pieter Zwart, Marco Engelbart, Stijn Hoppenbrouwers, 2015 This book offers a complete basic course in Fully Communication Oriented Information Modeling (FCO-IM), a Fact Oriented Modeling (FOM) data modeling technique. The book is suitable for self-study by beginner FCO-IM modelers, whether or not experienced in other modeling techniques. An elaborate case study is used as illustration throughout the book. The book also illustrates how data models in other techniques can be derived from an elementary FCO-IM model. The context of fact oriented modeling is given as well, and perspectives on information modeling indicate related areas of application and further reading. Fact Oriented Modeling methods (like FCO-IM) have three major advantages over other data modeling techniques: FCO-IM captures business semantics. The meaning of facts is captured by incorporating into the model expressions of concrete facts in clear sentences, which are understood by both domain experts and information modelers. FCO-IM includes a detailed working procedure that tells you exactly how to make a data model. Many techniques are clear about what is to be modeled, but few offer a detailed set of guidelines and checks that tell you how to draw up, check and validate your model. FCO-IM focuses on elementary facts, avoiding premature clustering of facts (in entities) but also avoiding considering only incomplete fragments of facts (attributes). From an elementary model, data models in other techniques can be automatically derived (ERM, UML, Data Vault, Star Schema, and Relational and NoSQL databases).
