The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 13 Spurgeon, Charles H., 2015-02-25 Volume 13 Sermons 728-787

Charles Spurgeon (19 June 1834 – 31 January 1892) is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers. Called the "Prince of Preachers," he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century, and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today. His sermons have spread all over the world, and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades. In his lifetime, Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people, often up to ten times each week. He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel (later the Metropolitan Tabernacle) in London for 38 years. He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons, commentaries, an autobiography, as well as books on prayer, devotionals, magazines, poetry, hymns and more. Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration, and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound. Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature. Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London: Volume 6 (1878) quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey: "Fancy a congregation consisting of 10,000 souls, streaming into the hall, mounting the galleries, humming, buzzing, and swarming—a mighty hive of bees—eager to secure at first the best places, and, at last, any place at all. After waiting more than half an hour—for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance—Mr. Spurgeon ascended his tribune. To the hum, and rush, and trampling of men, succeeded a low, concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion, which seemed to run at once, like an electric current, through the breast of every one present, and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours. It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse. It is enough to say of his voice, that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly; of his language, that it is neither high-flown nor homely; of his style, that it is at times familiar, at times declamatory, but always happy, and often eloquent; of his doctrine, that neither the 'Calvinist' nor the 'Baptist' appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr. Spurgeon with relentless animosity, and with Gospel weapons, against irreligion, cant, hypocrisy, pride, and those secret bosom-sins which so easily beset a man in daily life; and to sum up all in a word, it is enough to say of the man himself, that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity." More than a hundred years after his death, Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world. For this reason, Delmarva Publications has chosen to republish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon.

Charles H. Spurgeon Irving W. Risch, 2015-05-04 In my thirty plus years as a Christian I have read some of Spurgeon's writings and have always been blessed by them. I find it helpful to know and understand the man behind the writings to understand where he is coming from. Just like it is impotent to know Jesus Christ and who he really is in order to understand his teachings With that in mind let us look at the life and works of Charles H. Spurgeon.

I LOVE GOD, NOW WHAT? Book I Days 1 - 91 Steve Haines, 2025-08-21 Like any professional, Pastors can be busy people. Often the demands upon their time are myriad. The time when I first came to accept Christ as my Lord was wonderful beyond measure. Although my Pastor was eager to introduce me to Christ, he was not as intimately available to guide me in the aftermath of that wonderful moment. You see, having accepted Christ as Savior guarantees the blessing of eternity with Christ, but the new believer still has the rest of his or her life to negotiate. There are lots of things to learn, but in big churches people can get lost in the crowd and fall through the cracks, and in small churches...well, there is only so much a small staff can do. So I stumbled around for a long time, very gradually figuring out how to navigate the world and still hold to my faith in Christ. I remember thinking, "There has to be a better way than this." These discussions are part commentary, part history, part blessing, and part questioning. There's a little bit of everything. I've put considerable thought into writing these things, and I want you to get some benefit, some blessing from them. Think about what you read. You might be provoked to irritation, or to curiosity, or to laughter. Try to apply the thoughts to your life. But the bottom line is, if you don't read, you won't benefit. This first book that you are holding tries to answer some basic questions: Why should I fear God? Why should I trust Him? Who am I in Christ? What is the nature of sin? Following books talk about the Jewish Festivals and their profound meaning, about God's Constitution (Matthew chapters 5-7), about God's manifested love, what it means to be Grafted In to God's family, how to know Jesus, and what it means to abide in Christ. I hope you stick around to the end. Every life has its ups and downs and after several cycles of this, I was fed up and began to look for answers. I found this crazy new church which was meeting in a hotel conference room. I remember people all around me speaking in these strange indecipherable ways, people falling down on the floor, and generally acting nuts. I remember thinking, "Why am I here?" God had a plan, but I was not awake to it. But I stayed out of curiosity, if nothing else, and eventually God began to draw me in. Since then, God has led me on a wonderful journey. Where once I had a sort of vague notion of God, He used personal struggle to draw me closer to him. Where once I looked at everything from a performance-oriented point of view, He taught me the true value of the love of Christ. Where once I had to be doing things for Christ, He taught me the value of resting in the presence of Christ. I want people to understand these things. I want everyone to experience the intimate presence of Christ in their lives. I want everyone to see real-time answers to prayer as I have. I want people to understand that humble submission to God is the answer to every struggle, every problem, and every stress.
