Clifford Smyth

Happy Place Emily Henry, 2024-03-05 #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • A couple who broke up months ago pretend to still be together for their annual weeklong vacation with their best friends in this glittering and wise novel from #1 New York Times bestselling author Emily Henry. “The beach-read master hooks us again.—People Harriet and Wyn have been the perfect couple since they met in college—they go together like salt and pepper, honey and tea, lobster and rolls. Except, now—for reasons they’re still not discussing—they don’t. They broke up five months ago. And still haven’t told their best friends. Which is how they find themselves sharing a bedroom at the Maine cottage that has been their friend group’s yearly getaway for the last decade. Their annual respite from the world, where for one vibrant, blissful week they leave behind their daily lives; have copious amounts of cheese, wine, and seafood; and soak up the salty coastal air with the people who understand them most. Only this year, Harriet and Wyn are lying through their teeth while trying not to notice how desperately they still want each other. Because the cottage is for sale and this is the last week they’ll all have together in this place. They can’t stand to break their friends’ hearts, and so they’ll play their parts. Harriet will be the driven surgical resident who never starts a fight, and Wyn will be the laid-back charmer who never lets the cracks show. It’s a flawless plan (if you look at it from a great distance and through a pair of sunscreen-smear sunglasses). After years of being in love, how hard can it be to fake it for one week...in front of those who know you best?

My City Links:March 2025 Issue My City Links,2025-03-04 Ruling hearts, captivating minds: Odia film industry's first superstar leaves behind an enduring legacy When veteran actor and Odia film industry's first superstar Uttam Mohanty passed away last month, he left behind a void that will be difficult to fill in a hurry. Our Cover Story puts together the amazing journey of a man who made a special place in the hearts and minds of people not just with his on-screen persona but also with his demeanour in real life. We join leading lights of the Odia film industry in paying a richly-deserved tribute. Each year, March 21 is observed as the World Down Syndrome Day to raise awareness about this genetic condition in a bid to ensure their inclusion in the mainstream of society. City Health explores what this condition is all about and the care and support system needed for people with Down Syndrome. Since being sworn in after a historic win in the Odisha Assembly elections in June last year, the Mohan Charan Majhi government has made its intentions clear through a series of initiatives to develop the state. City Affairs brings you all the details, from the Odisha Budget 2025-26 to the recent 'Utkarsh Odisha-Make in Odisha Conclave 2025'. In City Literature, we take up 'The Nightingale', a novel that tells the moving story of two sisters set against the backdrop of Nazi-occupied France in World War II. With its poignant themes and skilful narration of the disparate yet closely entwined experiences of the principal protagonists, the novel is an enduring account of human resilience. That creativity recognises no borders has been demonstrated yet again with a short film that was conceptualized in Cuttack, shot in Kabul, and saw post-production work in three countries. Screen Shots brings you all the details. Four years ago, a Malayalam film, 'The Great Indian Kitchen', turned the spotlight firmly on a disturbing yet little-spoken-about reality in many Indian households. In 2024, its Hindi screen adaptation, 'Mrs', reignited discussions on the roles that a deeply patriarchal mindset assigns to women. Cityflix weighs in on the debate, taking a close look at how the two films have dealt with the subject and the responses that they have elicited. Elsewhere in the edition, a new City Tales series brings you snapshots of temple tanks in Bhubaneswar that embody the region's rich religious and cultural traditions. In City Green, an informative news feature marks World Sparrow Day which is observed on March 20 every year.
