The Jap Ji Kirpal Singh, 2025-07-30 Literal Translation from the Original Punjabi Text with Introduction, Commentary, Notes, and a Biographical Study of Guru Nanak by Kirpal Singh This version of Jap Ji, or the message of Guru Nanak, is sent out into the world in order to feed hungry souls and quench their thirst for true knowledge of the higher life. The original Punjabi text of the Jap Ji is exquisitely written and it is impossible to translate it without some loss. an effort, however, has been made in these pages to present a literal translation of the text to the public. Where the reader might lose the true import, recourse has been made to a free rendering. The Jap Ji deals with the practical aspect of the problem of spirituality more than with mere theory. Neither is it a mere work of literature. Earlier translations into English have tended to ignore this and have often failed to convey the true import of the original. in this rendering, an effort has been made to concentrate upon the message that the Jap Ji contains, rather than to indulge in a literary exercise. The study of this work will help all people, irrespective of the religion that they may profess. True religious thought is ingrained in the hearts of all beings. it is inherent and appears in the form of a search after peace Everlasting and Joy Supreme. When this awakening comes to man from within, he takes to the religious pursuits as prescribed by one or the other form of religion.

Message of Guru Nanak Through Sikh Daily Prayers Narendrapal Dhillon,2015-06-02 Believers of all religions have belief in connection of the human-soul with super-soul - Almighty God - and speak about the spiritual path of their unification. However the attempts to explain the journey of the soul are quite difficult to comprehend. Guru Nanak, founder of Sikh faith - the youngest in this world - prescribed a way of worldly life for his followers which includes earning through honest labor, ever remembrance of the ultimate truth of this creation and sharing one's earning with others. The recitation of some renderings of the Guru Sahibs is a part of the daily life routine of Sikhs. This book attempts to interpret three sets of renderings viz. JAPJI Sahib, RAHRAAS Sahib & Keertan SOHILA - recited in the morning, evening and night respectively - in order to unravel the message of Guru NANAK which is not only for his followers but for the entire humanity. The three chapters contained in this book explore the contents of the prayers and bring out the directions contained therein for the human beings to understand and implement in their daily living.

Two Gurus One Message Savinder Kaur Gill,Sonam Wangmo,2019-01-01 Buddhism and Sikhism, founded by the Lord Buddha and Guru Nanak respectively are both religions of India with a two thousand-year gap between the two faiths. Tarungpa Tulku in his 1966 article Guru Nanak in Tibet—A Buddhist view point wrote that Tibetan Buddhists have a special connection with Sikhism due to the belief that Guru Nanak was a manifestation of Guru Padmasambhava. It is with this curiosity that the idea for this book was conceived, leading to the discovery of an astonishing number of similarities between the two spiritual traditions. This comparative study, the first major attempt of its kind, scoured the entire Sikh Scripture Shri Guru Granth Sahib and found numerous parallels with the Buddhist Canon, especially Pali; ranging from the life stories of the founding fathers of the two faiths, their social agenda and core tenets to articles of faith, including religious symbolism. It is hoped that this research can in some way, help to blur the divisions between religious labels and bring out pure spirituality—devoid of fixation on religious externalities which leads to much dissent, especially in this degenerate ere. While acknowledging the rich diversity and uniqueness of each spiritual tradition, this book eventually comes to the conclusion that spirituality transcends religious labels. We have come to appreciate that although the externalities of religion may differ vastly—spiritual insights remain universal!

Guru Nanak Sreelatha Menon,2011 There is only one God and all are equal before him.' The founding father of Sikhism, Guru Nanak Dev was born in a little village near Lahore in Pakistan in the year 1469. In an age of religious orthodoxy, hate and disharmony, Guru Nanak came to preach and convert, to blaze a new trail. Sreelata Menon traces the life and times of this spiritual master. She brings to life stories of the birth, childhood and the search for enlightenment of a little boy who, unhappy with the social conditions existing around him, sought to make a difference as he grew up. With Mardana, his best friend and companion, Guru Nanak spent twenty years and more travelling the world to spread his message of love, truth, compassion and One God. Come rain or shine, braving all odds, winning over all kinds of people and performing miracles through the power of prayer, he spread the word of God. This is the story of an extraordinary man, who was the very embodiment of the love and compassion that he preached
