What Men Live By Leo Tolstoy,2024-05-09 This philosophical parable, rooted in biblical truths, offers a profound meditation on the essence of human existence, positing love as the fundamental force that sustains life. It stands as a didactic exploration of spiritual values, challenging materialistic pursuits in favor of a life guided by compassion and interconnectedness. What Men Live By, or Чем люди живы in Russian, was published in 1881. This philosophical parable, sometimes known by its German title Wovon die Menschen leben, delves into the spiritual and eternal values that underpin human life, drawing directly from biblical principles. The story recounts the experience of Semyon, a poor shoemaker, who discovers a naked stranger, Mikhailo, by the roadside and, despite his own destitution, brings him home. Mikhailo, who is an angel sent by God to collect a woman's soul but returns without it out of pity, becomes Semyon's apprentice. God then tasks

Mikhailo with answering three questions: What is in people?, What is not given to people?, and What do people live by?. Through his observations, Mikhailo ultimately comprehends that humans do not subsist on selfish self-interest but on cooperation and, above all, on love, which resides within them. This work, part of Tolstoy's folk tales and People's Reading project, reflects his intense turn to religious questions from 1879 onwards, emphasizing neighborly love and non-resistance to evil. This critical reader's edition presents a modern translation of the original manuscript, crafted for the modern reader with clean, contemporary language and simplified sentence structures that clarify his complex Russian phrasing and specific antiquated references. Supplementary material enriches the text with autobiographical, historical, and linguistic context, including an afterword by the translator on Tolstoy's personal history, impact, and intellectual legacy, an index of the philosophical concepts he employs—emphasizing Existentialism and influence by Schopenhauer—a comprehensive chronological list of his published writings, and a detailed timeline of his life, highlighting the personal relationships that shaped his philosophy.

What Men Live by and Other Tales Count Leo Nikolayevich Tolstoy,Louise Maude,2015-12-19 What Men Live By is a short story written by Russian author Leo Tolstoy in 1885. It is one of the short stories included in his collection What Men Live By, and Other Tales, published in 1885. The compilation also included the written pieces The Three Questions, The Coffee-House of Surat, and How Much Land Does a Man Need?. A kind and humble shoemaker called Simon goes out one day to purchase sheep-skins in order to sew a winter coat for his wife and himself to share. Usually the little money which Simon earns would be spent to feed his wife and children. Simon decides that in order to afford the skins he must go on a collection to receive the five rubles and twenty kopeks owed to him by his customers. As he heads out to collect the money he also borrows a three-ruble note from his wife's money box. While going on his collection he only manages to receive twenty kopeks rather than the full amount. Feeling disheartened by this, Simon rashly spends the twenty kopeks on vodka and starts to head back home. On his way home he rants to himself about how little he can do with twenty kopeks besides spending it on alcohol and, feeling warmed after the drink, he says to himself that the winter cold is bearable without a sheep-skin coat. While approaching the chapel at the bend of the road, Simon stops and notices something pale-looking leaning against it. He peers harder and notices that it is a naked man who appears poor of health. At first he is suspicious and fears that the man may have no good intentions if he is in such a state. He proceeds to pass the man until he sees that the man has lifted his head and is looking towards him. Simon debates what to do in his mind and feels ashamed for his disregard and heads back to help the man. Simon takes off his cloth coat and wraps it around the stranger. He also gives him the extra pair of boots he was carrying. He aids him as they both walk toward Simon's home. Though they walk together side by side, the stranger barely speaks and when Simon asks how he was left in that situation the only answers the man would give are: I cannot tell and God has punished me. Meanwhile, Simon's wife Matrena debates whether or not to bake more bread for the night's meal so that there is enough for the following morning's breakfast. She decides that the loaf of bread that they have left would be ample enough to last till the next morning. As she sees Simon approaching the door she is angered to see him with a strange man who is wrapped in Simon's clothing.
