Clifton J. Allen

Bonhoeffer's the Cost of Discipleship Greg Ligon, 1998 A volume comparable in style to Cliff's Notes, here highlighting the key points from Bonhoeffer's The Cost of Discipleship.

The 40 Most Influential Christians . . . Who Shaped What We Believe Today Daryl Aaron, 2013-08-01 Compelling Accounts of Key People Who Have Formed Christian Belief through the Ages All Christians' beliefs are shaped by those who went before them. Now these giants of Christian history are presented chronologically and in a format that helps readers get to know them. In addition to a biographical sketch, readers will discover each person's primary contributions to the Christian faith along with a brief quotation from their work. Students, history buffs, and curious readers will be fascinated as their faith is strengthened. Included are Polycarp, Justin Martyr, Augustine, Thomas Aquinas, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Karl Barth, Carl F. H. Henry, and more.

The Cost of Cheap Grace Bill Hull, Brandon Cook, 2020-01-07 What is a Christian? At the most basic level, a Christian is a disciple of Jesus Christ. And yet many Christians today couldn't tell you what a disciple of Jesus Christ is, or would even think of themselves as disciples. And yet in the Great Commission, Jesus specifically called us to make disciples. Everything else is secondary. The Cost of Cheap Grace is an extended, sweeping, bold, and bracing call to repentance for where we've let secondary things subvert our commitment to discipleship, and a compelling vision for discipleship as the basis of the gospel in all its world-changing, subversive power.

Multiple Faiths in Postcolonial Cities Jonathan Dunn, Heleen Joziase, Raj Bharat Patta, Joseph Duggan, 2019-08-01 This book addresses the challenges of living together after empire in many post-colonial cities. It is organized in two sections. The first section focuses on efforts by people of multiple faiths to live together within their contexts, including such efforts within a neighborhood in urban Manchester; the array of attempts at creating multi-faith spaces for worship across the globe; and initiatives to commemorate divisive conflict together in Northern Ireland. The second section utilizes particular postcolonial methods to illuminate pressing issues within specific contexts—including women's leadership in an indigenous denomination in the variegated African landscape, and baptism and discipleship among Dalit communities in India. In the context of growing multiculturalism in the West, this volume offers a postcolonial theological resource, challenging the epistemologies in the Western academy.

God & Morality in Christian Traditions J. Caleb Clanton, Kraig Martin, 2022-07-12 Christianity presumes morality is connected in important ways to God. God & Morality in Christian Traditions explores a wide range of philosophical issues related to that connection, including the metaphysical foundations of morality, the Fall and its implications, and how faith can affect one's ability to discern obligations. Also included is a robust treatment of how vice and virtue shape one's ethical life, as well as a timely discussion of how people—both Christians and non-Christians—can address deep moral disagreement in a pluralistic society. Drawing on Catholic, Protestant, and free church traditions, this volume highlights perspectives drawn from the natural law tradition, divine command theory, and virtue ethics, among other theoretical frameworks. Along the way, the authors provide salient insights on metaethics, moral epistemology, character development, and applied ethics. Scholars and students in Christian ethics, philosophy, and theology will benefit from this carefully edited and rigorously argued collection of essays.

The Ground of Holy Life David D. Cho, 2021-08-12 The Reformation put the grace of God in the right place in the salvation of man. Luther's proclamation of justification by faith brought the concept of grace to the fore and made it the centrality of Christian theology. But the overemphasis on the doctrine of justification in the Reformation created the imbalance between justification and sanctification in the soteriology of the Protestant church. To some people just the profession of faith without an accompanying godly life was not good enough for salvation. It seemed that salvation by grace of God in the doctrine of justification made man's salvation too easy, thereby opening the floodgate for nominal Christians who were no different from pagans in their hearts. Christian leaders and theologians in the modern church age have tried to rectify this problem by injecting the necessity of works into the Christian life. The spiritual movements such as pietism and perfectionism, and new theologies such as the New Perspective on Paul and the Federal Vision, are such endeavors that have stressed good works in the salvation of man. However, without the concept of definitive sanctification, they all lost the monergistic nature of salvation and deviated to the humanistic theology of Arminianism or Pelagianism.

Preach What You Believe Michael Bulson, 2005 A collection of homilies by a deacon for deacons--and anyone else who preaches. These homilies, which reflect the author's firm commitment to social justice, are followed by discussion questions.

Romania, Most Favored Nation Status United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on European Affairs, 1986

Starting Right Chap Clark, Kenda Creasy Dean, Dave Rahn, 2001 This is among the very few academic textbooks on youth ministry that blends solid research with real-life experience. It is an excellent resource for undergraduate or graduate courses in youth ministry or for youth workers who want to ground their ministry in solid theology.

Discipleship Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2015-11-01 Cheap grace is the mortal enemy of our church. Our struggle today is for costly grace. And with that sharp warning to his own church, which was engaged in bitter conflict with the official Nazified state church, Dietrich Bonhoeffer began his book Discipleship (formerly entitled The Cost of Discipleship). Originally published in 1937, it soon became a classic exposition of what it means to follow Christ in a modern world beset by a dangerous and criminal government. At its center stands an interpretation of the Sermon on the Mount: what Jesus demanded of his followers and how the life of discipleship is to be continued in all ages of the post-resurrection church. Every call of Jesus is a call to death, Bonhoeffer wrote. His own life ended in martyrdom on April 9, 1945. Using the acclaimed Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works English translation and adapted to a more accessible format, this new edition features supplemental material from Victoria J. Barnett and an insightful introduction by Geoffrey B. Kelly to clarify the theological meaning and social context of this attempt to resist the Nazi ideology.

Affirmations of Our Faith Clifton J. Allen, 1972

Option for the Poor Leonardo Boff, Virgilio P. Elizondo, Marcus Lefébure, 1986 Concilium has long been a household-name for cutting-edge critical and constructive theological thinking. Past contributors include leading Catholic scholars such as Hans Küng, Gregory Baum and Edward Schillebeeckx, and the editors of the review belong to the international who's who in the world of contemporary theology. Published five times a year, each issue reflects a deep knowledge and scholarship presented in a highly readable style, and each issue offers a wide variety of viewpoints from leading thinkers from all over the world.

The Martyred Christian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1983

The Bridge of Faith Robert J. Turley, 2000 The essentials of the Christian faith, from Creation to the Second Coming, are explained by a layman for laypeople. From a traditional evangelical perspective, well grounded in Scripture, the author concludes that the Kingdom of God is accessed across a bridge of faith and under a white flag, surrendering the believers' time, talents, energy and resources to the King. This book will prepare Christian witnesses to give their testimony on behalf of the gospel.

Bonhoeffer's Ethic of Discipleship Kenneth Earl Morris, 1986 This is the first book to focus on the ethic that Dietrich Bonhoeffer constructed during the 1930s--an ethic he crafted while playing a key role in Christian resistance to Nazism and an ethic still inspiring politically active Christians. The ethic of discipleship, this study argues, represents a reworking of the Christian faith so that it becomes actively opposed to totalitarianism. This book therefore adds a significant dimension to the published record concerning the German theologian and pastor executed in 1945 for conspiring to assassinate Hitler and overthrow the Third Reich. Since an ethic reflects more than a cognitive assent and has emotional and experiential dimensions, the author's approach is socio-psychological, drawing on the large documentary record of Bonhoeffer's family relations. Reductionism, however, is rejected in this book, which gives social psychology parity but not superiority--in understanding Bonhoeffer's religious quest and political dialogue.

Prophecy and Praxis Robin Gill,1981

The perfect way to plunge into prayer.Distinctive Features: -- Four cycles of daily prayers and reflections for morning and evening -- Prayers from various Christian writers, including John Paul II, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, Jean Vanier, and Clare of Assisi -- Daily themes and power thoughts

Systematic Theology James Leo Garrett,1990 Volume 2 of Garrett's widely praised Systematic Theology interprets five major Christian doctrines: the work of Jesus Christ, the person and work of the Holy Spirit, becoming a Christian and living the Christian life, the church, and the last things.
