

The Way We Fight Katie Rae

Lei Shi

The Way We Fight Katie Rae,2024-01-26 They can't handle the way we fight. As one of the first women to referee in the NFL, Charleigh has a lot of pressure on her shoulders and a lot of eyes watching her every move. But no one is watching Charleigh harder than the head coach of Atlanta's football team. Levi Peyton has made a name for himself, becoming the youngest coach in the NFL to win a Super Bowl. His achievements didn't come without a price, though, and the last thing Levi needs is a rookie referee standing in front of him on the sideline. Especially a woman the league wants him to coddle to save their precious image. Despite the warnings, Levi plans to treat her the way he would any other referee: With a fight. If she blows a call, he plans to let her have it. But there's a history between Charleigh and Levi that neither of them can erase, much less forget. It's a feeling they have to fight for the sake of their jobs. Of course, that'd be easier to do if the fight stayed on the field. But it carries over to the locker room, the gym, and even to the middle of a boxing ring. Their feelings get complicated, and with the twists and turns going on around them, it's getting harder to deny that what they have is no longer a fight. It's real. And the only way for it to work is for one of them to throw in the towel. In this steamy sports romance, Charleigh and Levi learn that some things are worth fighting for. With humor, spice, and banter, this book will have you in all your feels. Written in dual, 1st person POV, with an HEA.

The Convenient Groom Beth Webb Hart,2007 Convenient groom: Dr. Kate has it all--a radio talk show, a nationally-syndicated column, and her first book, Finding Mr. Right-For-You. But when her fiance jilts her the morning of their wedding, her life begins to crash around her.

The Convenient Groom and Wedding Machine Denise Hunter,Beth Webb Hart,2009-07-15 A special bundle of two books authored by Denise Hunter. The Convenient Groom and Wedding Machine.

The Way We Dance Katie Rae,2024-01-26 One dances with grace. The other dances in the endzone. Giselle was the daughter of a world-renowned prima ballerina, struggling to live up to her mother's legacy. When she decides to leave the stage behind, she lands in Atlanta, content to teach ballet lessons to the next generation. What she didn't expect was to wind up teaching the NFL's biggest bad boy how to pli  . Tyson Black was from the other side of the tracks, using football to get himself off the streets and out of trouble. But as the new season approaches, his game is lacking, sparking his coach to send him to the one place he'd never be caught dead: Ballet lessons. Despite neither of them wanting to be there, Giselle and Ty begin working together in hopes of finding mutual ground in their arrangement. Their time together wouldn't be so bad if they weren't complete opposites in every way. Giselle is graceful, poised, and uptight. Ty is wild, obnoxious, and a bit of a brute. They clash with every step, using their quick wit and banter to drive each other crazy. It takes time, but eventually, they develop a rhythm, mutually calling a truce as they discover that they have more in common than just the way they dance. But that commonality was dangerous, and when someone gets hurt, it could lead to their ultimate demise. Can they overcome the hurdles? Or will they have to learn to dance alone? The Way We Dance is a funny, witty, and smart look into what happens when opposites attract on the dance floor. A touch of suspense and a twist will keep you guessing. Written in dual, 1st person POV, with an HEA.
