The History of Modern Korean Fiction (1890-1945) Young Min Kim,2020-11-09 This book explores the history of modern Korean literature from a sociocultural perspective. Rather than focusing solely on specific authors and their works, Young Min Kim argues that the development of modern media, shifting conceptualizations of the author, and a growing mass readership fundamentally shaped the types of narratives that appeared at the turn of the twentieth century. In particular, Kim follows the trajectory of the sin sosol (new fiction) as it meshed with the new print and media culture to give rise to innovative and hybrid genres and literary styles. In doing so, he compellingly illuminates the relationship between literary systems and forms and underscores the necessity of re-locating literary texts in their sociohistorical contexts.

Modern Classic Short Novels Of Science Fiction Gardner Dozois,2014-10-28 The novella is, in the words of Gardner Dozois, a perfect length for a science fiction story: long enough to enable you to flesh out the details of a strange alien world or a bizarre future society...and yet, still short enough for the story to pack a real punch. The thirteen masterpieces assembled in Modern Classic Short Novels of Science Fiction travel to the farthest reaches of the imagination, through realms of immortality, along alternate paths of time and across vast galaxies to explore the best of all imaginable worlds.

The Way to Do a Thing Is to Do It Carl Wells,2017-02-23 There are three kinds of people in the world . . . One, there are people who make the world worse. Two, there are people who make the world better. Three, there are people who look on the world and imagine that they can avoid the strife of the battle between good and evil. The Way to Do a Thing Is to Do It: Essays reminds us that if we act with the intention of making the world better, we will learn as we do. Even if mistakes are mixed in, in our acting. The devil is in the details, of course. . . .
