All My Sons Arthur Miller,1971 Theatre program.

All My Sons Arthur Miller,2011-10-06 In Joe and Kate Keller's family garden, an apple tree - a memorial to their son Larry, lost in the Second World War - has been torn down by a storm. But his loss is not the only part of the family's past they can't put behind them. Not everybody's forgotten the court case that put Joe's partner in jail, or the cracked engine heads his factory produced which caused it and dropped twenty-one pilots out of the sky ...

American Drama in the Age of Film Zander Brietzke,2007-06-28 Publisher description

Coping Luc Bovens,2021-12-02 Coping is a collection of philosophical essays on how we deal with life's challenges. We hope for better times, but what is hope, and is it a good thing to hope? How do we look back and make sense of our lives in the face of death? What is the nature of love, and how do we deal with its hardships? What makes for a genuine apology, and is there too much or too little apologizing in this world? Can we bring about changes in ourselves to adapt to our circumstances? How can we make sense of all the good advice—such as, count your blessings, don't cry over spilled milk—that people have on offer? Coping is a perfect companion text for a moral psychology course, a resilience course, or part of an ethics course. The material is written for readers who are new to philosophy and progresses in short self-contained sections. It draws on literature, music, podcasts, and news items. Each chapter has questions for discussion or essay writing and suggestions for material to explore the topic further.

Biblical Theology C. Clifton Black,2024-11-19 An essential collection of C. Clifton Black's best essays on the theology of the New Testament Clift Black is well known and widely loved for his exegetical acuity, his theological seriousness, his pastoral kindness, and the most delightful sense of humor in the biblical studies guild. All these qualities are amply displayed in these thirty essays written across four decades of his career, including four essays that are published here for the first time. Biblical Theology: Essays Exegetical, Cultural, and Homiletical represents the fruit of a lifetime of studying, preaching, praying, training pastors, walking in the light, and laughing in the valley of the shadow of death. Black's keen mind and pastoral heart make this volume a rich contribution to the field of biblical theology.

Bodies, Remedies, Policies Romana Radlwimmer,2025-10-20 Early Modern expansionism and its aftermaths constitute a biopolitical laboratory, measuring social and individual well-being and decay, and defining healthy bodies and adequate remedies through policies controlling disease. This anthology traces the power over life and death from 16th century Chronicles of the Indies to Covid-19 narratives, asking how pathology and healing have been marked by the long shadows of colonialism, and how bodies, remedies, and policies intersect in contexts shaped by (post)imperial structures. The contributors analyze anatomies and configurations of the flesh, the space bodies inhabit in the mapping of immune systems, and the corporeal performances and discourses creating an infectious or robust biosphere. The authors revisit the preventive or reactive substances proposed or imagined for malady and recovery, and the way mixtures are applied. How can body practices and treatments be strategies to create or disturb impermeability and safety? How do institutional decisions, governmental laws, aesthetic interventions, or moral instructions regulate human thriving and suffering? Such questions, rooted in Romance Literatures, Colonial Studies, Medical History, and Biopolitics, are addressed in this book.

The Contemporary American Monologue Eddie Paterson, 2015-12-17 Talk-show confessions, online rants, stand-up routines, inspirational speeches, banal reflections and calls to arms: we live in an age of solo voices demanding to be heard. In The Contemporary American Monologue Eddie Paterson looks at the pioneering work of US artists Spalding Gray, Laurie Anderson, Anna Deavere Smith and Karen Finley, and the development of solo performance in the US as a method of cultural and political critique. Ironic confession, post-punk poetry, investigations of race and violence, and subversive polemic, this book reveals the link between the rise of radical monologue in the late 20th century and history of speechmaking, politics, civil rights, individual freedom and the American Dream in the United States. It shows how US artists are speaking back to the cultural, political and economic forces that shape the world. Eddie Paterson traces the importance of the monologue in Shakespeare, Brecht, Beckett, Chekov, Pinter, O'Neill and Williams, before offering a comprehensive analysis of several of the most influential and innovative American practitioners of monologue performance. The Contemporary American Monologue constitutes the first book-length account of US monologists that links the tradition of oratory and speechmaking in the colony to the appearance of solo performance as a distinctly American phenomenon.

Translating Culture Specific References on Television Irene Ranzato, 2015-09-16 Translating Culture Specific References on Television provides a model for investigating the problems posed by culture specific references in translation, drawing on case studies that explore the translational norms of contemporary Italian dubbing practices. This monograph makes a distinctive contribution to the study of audiovisual translation and culture specific references in its focus on dubbing as opposed to subtitling, and on contemporary television series, rather than cinema. Irene Ranzato's research involves detailed analysis of three TV series dubbed into Italian, drawing on a corpus of 95 hours that includes nearly 3,000 CSR translations. Ranzato proposes a new taxonomy of strategies for the translation of CSRs and explores the sociocultural, pragmatic and ideological implications of audiovisual translation for the small screen.
