

Similarities With Christianity And Islam

Mark A Gabriel

From Jesus to Muhammad Elena Trenccevska, Timurlenk Chekovikj, 2019 the book presented is written to answer many important reader questions, both classical and modern. It is, not a surprise, that many previous books on comparison between the Islam and Christianity were written from the Christian position; even in scholarly research Islam has been seen through the lens of Christian religion and in the pattern of Christian belief. In contrast, the book by Elena Trenccevska & Timurlenk Cekovikj From Jesus to Muhammed presents another point of view. It is written not to refute some other religions, but, first of all, to present the truth of early religious history. At the beginning of the book, the authors present a background of early Christianity and tries to reconstruct the true teaching of Jesus. Nowadays, due to apocrypha and availability of other early writings, one may see many other stories of Christianity, which are so far from „canonical, knowing that many religious groups pretended to be the real followers of Jesus. Many parts of the book are dedicated to the personality of Jesus and development of his image in both Christianity and Islam. Today, when we compare the Quranic view of Jesus to the early Christian sources, we may see many similar stories (for example, the Quranic narration about God's creation of birds made of clay through Jesus). This represents that Jesus (for example, his early life) is a great mystery of history; but since we have a very small account about this in the Quran and in the Bible, no one has a real proof to speculate about this. And this is why this book calls us not to start some polemics, but to consider the sacred text which gives the most authoritative stories to the believers.

Christianity, Islam, and Orisa-Religion J.D.Y. Peel, 2016 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos, University of California Press's open access publishing program for monographs. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. The Yoruba of southwestern Nigeria are exceptional for the copresence among them of three religious traditions: Islam, Christianity, and the indigenous orisa religion. In this comparative study, at once historical and anthropological, Peel explores the intertwined character of the three religions and the dense imbrication of religion in all aspects of Yoruba history up to the present. For over 400 years, the Yoruba have straddled two geocultural spheres: one reaching north over the Sahara to the world of Islam, the other linking them to the Euro-American world via the Atlantic. These two external spheres were the source of contrasting cultural influences, notably those emanating from the world religions. However, the Yoruba not only imported Islam and Christianity but also exported their own orisa religion to the New World. Before the voluntary modern diaspora that has brought many Yoruba to Europe and the Americas, tens of thousands were sold as slaves in the New World, bringing with them the worship of the orisa. Peel offers deep insight into important contemporary themes such as religious conversion, new religious movements, relations between world religions, the conditions of religious violence, the transnational flows of contemporary religion, and the interplay between tradition and the demands of an ever-changing present. In the process, he makes a major theoretical contribution to the anthropology of world religions.

Christian Devotions & Quick Studies Jim Davenport, 2013-01-02 This book is a compilation of selected articles and devotions on a variety of Christian topics. Some touch on items of importance to the local church such as how to deal with rumors and gossip, the Biblical pattern for giving, the comparison of givers and takers, harboring grudges, and the proper order for worship. Many of the articles provide advice to the individual Christian on their daily walk with God including such topics as lifestyle choices, the sanctity of life, changes brought about by the salvation experience, how to deal with fear, facing tough times, being a friend, and making right choices. Several articles touch on Islam with one providing a basic comparison to Christian beliefs. Others address the nature of God, the gift of Jesus, and the believer's sufficiency in Christ. Not everyone will appreciate the author's point of view, but his purpose is to make you think ... and in particular to think about and strengthen your relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus and Muhammad Mark A Gabriel, 2004-04-27 Finally, the truth...about Jesus and Muhammad This provocative book presents a factual analysis of the two most influential men of all time-Jesus, the founder of Christianity, with 2 billion adherents, and Muhammad, the founder of Islam, with 1.3 billion followers. Dr. Mark A. Gabriel allows you to walk side by side with Jesus and Muhammad from their births to their deaths. Similarities in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Habila T. Daboh, 2021-08-10 The book you are reading discusses the commonalities of the most famous Abrahamic religions. It prickles to consciousness the rudimentary needs, not just for religious coexistence but human coexistence. You will find in this book, titillating issues oscillating from Monotheism, Love, Peace, Sacredness of life, and Self-defense, among others. The author does not compare but makes the reader understand the issues that unite these religions than divide them. The book does not mince words in maintaining that religion is not a heavenly contest but a heart regalia that one has a unique right to change when one so wishes. Religion may help in paving the way to better living but can never be a competitive way of life. The book acknowledges the auspicious stand of religion in the society. Religious beliefs, values and ideas have continued to make momentous involvement and contribute to the development of every civilisation. In sophisticated societies, religion and its meaningful belief systems articulate responses to issues relating to human nature, identity and purpose. In essence, these religions provide a frame of reference for understating the word and for guiding personal and communal action for the good of all. The ignorance and myopic view of religion is the reason it is accused of causing chaos as this is manifested in the disagreements between different faith ideologies and creeds. This book is important to all and sundry. Students of History, Inter-religious dialogue and Comparative Religion will find this book an invaluable treasure. Researchers on the common grounds among the Abrahamic religions will appreciate the contents of this book.

ISLAM & THE QURAN Edward D. Andrews, 2023-06-13 In his latest work, ISLAM & THE QURAN: Examining the Quran & Islamic Teachings, renowned scholar Edward D. Andrews delves into the intricacies of one of the world's most influential religions. This comprehensive study is an exploration of Islam, the Quran, and their impact on our world. Starting with the history of Islam, Andrews expertly traces the path from Muhammad's calling to the diverse, global community that follows this faith today. By investigating the role of the Quran, along with the hadiths and Islamic law, Andrews seeks to understand Islam's principles and the interpretations that have shaped its practices over time. The book further examines the Islamic teachings, the concept of abrogation, and the much-debated topic of Jihad. It critiques the teachings that contradict biblical texts and navigates through controversial areas with a scholarly precision that respects the sensitivity of the subject matter. In an analysis of the Quran, Andrews investigates its authenticity and supposed 'miracle.' Is it truly a divine revelation, or does it stem from human conception? He contrasts Quranic interpretation of Jesus and other biblical figures with those in the Bible, unravelling historical and archaeological validation of the scriptures along the way. From evaluating the Quran's internal harmony to understanding the meaning of Jihad, the book digs deep into the heart of Islam. It touches upon the various Muslim sects, their religious practices, and provides a comprehensive look at the punishment for apostasy in Islam. In addressing frequent Muslim criticisms against the New Testament, Andrews not only defends biblical accuracy but also delves into a detailed analysis of Bible difficulties, offering practical procedures for resolving them. Closing with an insightful examination of Islamic eschatology and the Nation of Islam and its unique beliefs, the book provides a glossary of technical terms and a bibliography for further study.

Your Book and My Book Gerhard Nehls, 2016-04 We live in a changing world. Mass migration and seemingly shrinking distances are leading to a clash of worldviews and cultures. This, in turn, is formed and sustained by our religious beliefs, based on the Bible or the Qur'an. Most Christians and Muslims do not choose their religion. They were born into it, and to a varying degree instructed in it. True faith is based on knowing why and what to believe. For such a choice information is indispensable. It can be found here. Those who make a genuine effort to obtain an adequate insight into both religions in order to form their own opinions about them, do not only broaden their horizon, and begin to understand the mindset of their foreign neighbours, but also learn to significantly relate to them. This book affords a basic and yet sufficient insight into the Bible and the Qur'an. The reader will be surprised by discoveries they are likely to make about the very source of their own religion. Gerhard Nehls not only studied the Bible and the Qur'an, but equally the Hadith and Sirat, which support and interpret the latter. Besides that he was involved in a great number of personal studies and discussions with Muslims. This book is unique in that it does not consult the one or other opposing opinion about them, but lets the two Books speak for themselves. Its topical order makes it easy to discover their similarities, but it also does not hide their, at times crucial, differences. Be challenged! Just think of it! What if...'
