Dr. Ellie Abdi, Dr. Redha Taiar

From Leadership in School Organization to Pragmatic Research in Physical Education Professional Development Dr. Ellie Abdi, Dr. Redha Taiar, 2018-04-18 The making of this book actually hit me a while back when I was working on my doctoral dissertation. As an educational leadership doctoral student and candidate, I struggled with ideas related to leadership, and therefore, I kept little notes here and there on papers, computers, cell phone, or in my head. Once, I was reading interesting studies or those that made sense with approaches to leadership. I wrote them down. Later, when it came time to write my dissertation, I struggled along the way. For that reason, I have decided to write the book and to familiarize those who want to write a dissertation or thesis with steps necessary to embark on and pursue to complete such a journey. During one of my trips to France, I shared my ideas with a colleague, Redha, who offered his assistance, expertise, and attention. From that point on, we communicated via email and during my visits to France. The leadership in school organization is written for educational leaders, and the research part of the book is written for students who want to investigate the professional development in physical education. Yet any leader or student can benefit from the general ideas offered here.

The MBA Reality Check Evan Forster, David St. John Thomas, 2010-04-06 A no-nonsense guide to getting into business school at a time when the industry requirements are evolving and competition is at a record level. MBA programs are redefining their mission and seeking a new generation of business visionaries. No longer simply about grades or test scores, top schools now look for students with a transformative vision. The MBA Reality Check covers everything from the specifics of the application process to how applicants can position themselves among the crop of tomorrow's business innovators. Through their work with hundreds of MBA hopefuls, Forster and Thomas have shown what it takes to succeed in today's highly competitive marketplace, including: ?How applicants can find their own exceptional story to set them apart ?What to include in an MBA application-and what to leave out ?What b-schools really want to learn about candidates ?How to turn any question into an opportunity to illustrate unique leadership qualities

Destination MBA Mansie Dewan, DESTINATION MBA An MBA is what you have in mind. But do you know how to navigate smoothly and effectively through the gruelling admission process? This book gives you a brilliant head start on how to go about it and stay ahead. It comes from an experienced MBA admissions coach, who advises you on the key elements of admission—choosing your schools and programmes, beginning the applications, crafting your essays, writing your letters of recommendations and gearing up for the interviews. You are also inspired by samples of real-life essays of those who have been through it and succeeded. Most of the self-help tools suggested in this book are those which the author herself uses to counsel her students. A thorough reading will empower all MBA aspirants and give them an edge over other applicants. So good luck! An MBA has become an essential tool for tomorrow's CEO. In a world where it seems that everyone has a degree the only way you can be sure to rise to the top is by gaining your degree at a top quality internationally recognized University. No longer is an undergrad degree enough for entry into Fortune 500 companies, you are going to need a top quality MBA. This book will help you navigate the complexities of which country and which college is best for you, all the preparatory work you need to do to help you gain admission, and prepare you for your classes. By buying this book you are taking the first step in securing your future. Chris White President & Group CEO This outstandingly helpful book is packed with cuttingedge tips and real-world success strategies you can start applying immediately to get into the MBA program of your choice. I stand in awe of Mansie Dewan's amazing ability to record so well in writing the integration of so many invaluable insights gained from her years of extensive experience coaching individuals through the business school application process. If you want to get an MBA, this book is a must have. Jonathan Jordan President and Business & Executive Coach Global Change Management, USA www.mindfullychange.com

Kpim of Morality Pantaleon Iroegbu,Anthony Onyebuchi Echekwube,2005 The Kpim refers to the quintessence of a given reality, hence in this context, the central ethical questions that govern human life. With reference to the particular African context and drawing on African philosophical and cultural traditions, this broad-ranging work discusses the major ethical questions pertaining to public and private spheres of life. It is divided into sections on general ethics, special ethics, professional ethics, education ethics, business ethics, life ethics, bio-ethics, medical ethics and gene ethics. Examples of the themes addressed are: ethics in traditional African society, the ethics of African values and the ethics of the chieftancy culture; the ethics of globalisation and the ethical imperative for world peace; and ethics and health care in the developing world.

The Soul of a Leader Waller R. Newell,2009-10-06 What are we looking for in a leader? Has the meaning of leadership changed? Can history provide guidance for the leaders of a rising generation? What defines the soul of a leader? In The Soul of a Leader, political scientist and cultural commentator Waller R. Newell offers a fascinating perspective on the role of leadership in American life today. From the birth of democracy in Periclean Athens to the Founding Fathers' view of statesmanship, from the experiences of Abraham Lincoln to those of modern presidents, this far-reaching and provocative new book explores the many and diverse elements of good statesmanship, including the timeless qualities all good leaders share. As Newell plumbs the depths of history, he illuminates the moral, psychological, and intellectual resources we inherit from the traditions of the West—traditions steeped in the experience and reflection on statecraft from ancient times onward—and offers a compass for the challenges America's next generation of leaders will face. In this engaging blend of character portraiture, historical perspective, and contemporary political insight, Newell proposes a bold new perspective on the evolution of the modern American presidency, from Franklin Roosevelt to George W. Bush. He steps back in time to evaluate the clashing models of Lincoln and Robert E. Lee, as they captured the struggle for the soul of the American Republic. And, in an essay of masterful historical reach, he contemplates the roots of modern leadership in the story of what he calls the West's first superpower conflict—the epic battle between Athens and Sparta, with its echoes of both Vietnam and Iraq. Finally, he draws from these stories ten lessons in political greatness—lessons the next American president will be wise to heed.
