One with the One Emily Jean Entwistle, 2021-03-21 Emily Jean Entwistle, a former executive and material girl with a mystical bent, was badly damaged by a childhood rife with sexual and psychological abuse. In one with the One, she shares a story of transformation because of a soul level agreement to evolve through suffering into wholeness and joy. Entwistle chronicles her path to wholeness, offering details of her life. She was adopted into a frightening home and was a virtual prisoner until age eighteen. She was to die and go to heaven just when she reached tenuous stability as an adult. She returned from heaven, back to her broken body for the sake of another and was taught through service that the greatest law of life is love. In this memoir, she tells how conscious communion with God can be experienced by anyone. While her story illustrates how this happened to her, it offers guidance on how others can experience this, too. Through her trials and triumphs, Entwistle has learned that we are eternal beings floating in a sea of love. Her journey from darkness to light teaches the truth that we are co-creators being led back, with the greatest love of all, to conscious communion with God.

Children in Turmoil Richard Brozovich, Linda Chase (LMSW.), 2007 Children raised in stable, favorable environments usually grow up to be educated, productive, and emotionally healthy members of society. However, not all children are that fortunate; they may experience transitional obstacles (i.e., parental divorce, death of a close family member, foster care, serious emotional or health problems, etc.) that greatly impact their development and feelings of self-worth. While some events have minor and temporary effects that can be easily overcome, others can be traumatizing and detrimental. Counselors, teachers, social workers, or parents responsible for a child in turmoil will find this book extremely useful. All the therapeutic activities in this book are based on an effective combination of cognitive-behavioral therapy and solution-focused approach. They are also designed to promote positive growth and address certain issues (e.g., loss, feelings of rejection, anger control, etc.), while teaching children vital life strategies and skills reaching their full potential and self-actualization. With active participation, and patience and kindness from supportive adults, children can learn to overcome harmful, self-defeating emotions and behaviors.

Rewire for Wealth: Three Steps Any Woman Can Take to Program Her Brain for Financial Success Barbara Huson, 2021-01-12 A groundbreaking program to help women create a habit of building wealth—from renowned financial therapist Barbara Huson (formerly Barbara Stanny) The men in her life had always handled Barbara Huson's money: First her father (the "R" of H&R Block), and then her husband, a stockbroker who turned out to be a compulsive gambler. When tax bills arrived for over $1m for his illegal deals, her ex left the country, her father refused to help, and Huson—who'd always been "scared and intimidated by money"—realized she had to grow up financially, fast. Since that dramatic financial wake-up call, Huson has devoted herself to learning everything there is to know about women and money, and in Rewire for Wealth she goes to the very core of the disconnect between the two: According to multiple studies, women's and men's brains process information differently—and that has a profound effect when it comes to money. (Men, for example, view investing as a challenge; women see it as a threat.) Fortunately, you can "un-learn" previous bad lessons—and train your brain to process differently. In Rewire for Wealth, Huson offers a proven and integrative approach to re-wiring your brain. Using the latest neuroscience, psychology, and mind-training techniques with original research that includes more than 20 years of hard-won financial expertise, she shows you how to quickly but methodically eliminate maladaptive financial behaviors, and expand your ability to build wealth. By repeatedly applying a practical three-step formula—recognize, reframe, and respond differently—old brain circuits become weaker and new ones grow stronger, paving the way to a more confident approach to wealth building. You may never get a financial wake-up call as dramatic as Huson's, but the real, positive, and life-changing power to take charge, now, is at your fingertips.
