Humanism in Islam Marcel Boisard, 1987-10-01 Humanism in Islam - The West's generalized fear and lack of intellectual honesty toward Islam prevent it from recognizing the wealth of benefits Islam bestows on mankind. Demonstrates that Islam and Islamic law can make a vital contribution to the protection of human rights worldwide. Freed from European colonial tutelage and representing almost a billion souls, grouped in approximately forty states, the Muslims have entered the international scene without really having any other choice but to imitate the existing institutions, or to accept provisions in which they, historically speaking, have had no participation. Nevertheless, the process of modernization has not lured the Muslims away from the remembrance of a glorious heritage. On the contrary, wherever the movement of Westernization has been too brutal, it has run into a religious challenge. Islam thus reappeared as one of the grand moral and political forces of the contemporary world. Humanism in Islam has not been drafted only out of sympathy for the Muslims but also on account of historical evidence: Islamic civilization was the first to outline clear and mandatory provisions for protecting the destiny of man and society, and for creating order in the ties between peoples. As to its general character, this work attempts to encourage a certain Western public to abandon its ethnocentrism in order to better understand the legitimate aspirations - expressing themselves sometimes in chaos - of the present-day Muslims.

Sustainable History and Human Dignity Nayef R.F. Al-Rodhan, 2022-01-27 Sustainable History and the Dignity of Man is a new philosophy of history. This volume outlines how sustainable history is propelled by good governance, which balances the tension between the attributes of human nature - emotionality, amorality and egoisms - and human dignity needs, such as reason, security, human rights, accountability, transparency, justice, opportunity, innovation and inclusiveness. The author proposes minimum criteria for good governance that are sensitive to local cultures and histories but meet certain common global values to ensure maximum and sustainable moral and political cooperation. Using an ocean model of a single collective human civilisation, the author argues that we should think in terms of a common human story that is comprised of multiple geo-cultural domains and sub-cultures with a history of mutual borrowing and synergies. The author argues that, today, all geo-cultural domains must succeed if humanity as a whole is to triumph. This collective triumph will also depend on reason and a recognition that a great deal of knowledge is indeterminate and may be temporally, spatially and perhaps culturally constrained, as is outlined in the author's new theory of knowledge: Neuro-rational Physicalism. Dr. Nayef R.F. Al-Rodhan is Senior Scholar in Geostrategy and Director of the Programme on the Geopolitical Implications of Globalisation and Transnational Security at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy, Geneva, Switzerland. This book is an exceptionally wide-ranging examination of past and present approaches to the securing of a qualitatively adequate social life on the planet. The need for intercultural dialogue is pressing and stated as a matter of urgency in the text. That argument is well-presented and it is helpfully accompanied by a large amount of empirical evidence. The book is also a strong and ethically attractive humanist statement about the value of human interaction that incorporates a vision of mutual respect based on a mixture of scientific arguments and normative aspirations. Those features are very impressive. Professor Michael Freeden, Professor of Politics, Director of the Centre for Political Ideologies, Professorial Fellow, Mansfield College, University of Oxford, United Kingdom.

L'islam et le savoir : panorama de la pensée islamique contemporaine Mohamed Oudihat, 2023-12-07 La plupart des pays musulmans ont été pris dans un processus d'occidentalisation depuis la colonisation et cela s'est prolongé après leur indépendance. L'occidentalisation, c'est l'imposition forcée d'idées, de valeurs et d'une vision du monde occidentales qui se retrouvent dans tout ce qui est importé : les institutions, la technologie, les sciences humaines et naturelles, la culture et les divertissements... C'est dans ce contexte qu'a émergé une prise de conscience collective que « la chose de l'occident » (les institutions, la technologie, l'industrie, les loisirs, les produits, la culture et même la connaissance) n'est pas aussi universelle qu'elle le prétend, mais biaisée par une vision matérialiste particulière. Par ailleurs, les réflexions sur l'histoire des sciences islamiques ont soulevé une question d'actualité : comment les sociétés musulmanes contemporaines peuvent-elles retrouver l'esprit des sciences islamiques telles qu'elles ont été pratiquées et développées au cours de l'histoire ? Différents discours islamiques ont apporté une réponse à cette question centrale : quelle vision de la connaissance ? Et corrélativement, quelle position vis-à-vis du savoir islamique traditionnel et occidental moderne existant ? Il est nécessaire de cartographier ces discours pour comprendre la place de chaque intellectuel, son orientation générale, ce qui le rapproche ou l'éloigne des autres. Les cartographier est un moyen de mesurer l'émergence et la pertinence d'un « Nouveau discours islamique »<sup>1</sup> sur la connaissance. Il existe différentes manières de catégoriser les principaux discours sur l'islam et le savoir. Cette étude propose d'en comparer 4 majeures.

L'Afrique à l'ère du savoir Jean-Marc Ela, 2007-01-01 Réinventer la science pour participer à la construction des sociétés où l'être humain peut s'épanouir, tel est le projet qui met à l'épreuve les nouvelles générations de chercheurs dans les pays africains. Cet ouvrage tente de fonder une autre manière de faire la science en examinant les enjeux auxquels l'Afrique est confrontée. Il décrypte les enjeux de savoir qui sont inséparables des enjeux de pouvoir. Volontairement provocant et stimulant, il permet de mieux cerner les enjeux de l'Afrique à l'ère du savoir.

Témoignages Impartiaux Kamel Chekkat, 2015-01-01 Ce livre est venu en réponse à ceux qui voulaient considérer les musulmans comme libres, dit-il dans le Dictionnaire philosophique: «Je vous le dis encore, vous les idiots ignorants, que les ignorants leur ont fait croire que la religion mahométane est sensuelle, ce n'est pas le cas, vous avez été trompé sur ce point tel qu'il est. Sur bien d'autres points: s'il vous est interdit de jouer à un jeu de fortune sous le poids de la malédiction; si le vin vous est interdit sous la même peine; si vous devez effectuer le pèlerinage dans le désert; si vous êtes tenu de donner au moins deux pour cent et demi de vos revenus aux pauvres Si vous aviez l'habitude de jouir de dix-huit femmes, vous avez soudainement rompu avec quatorze; oseriez-vous appeler cette religion sensuelle? Saint François d'Assise et le sultan Al-Kâmil Azza Heikal, 2018-07-27 La rencontre mémorable entre le moine François d'Assise et le sultan Al-Kâmil a été rapportée par nombre de commentateurs occidentaux, mais elle n'a jamais été relatée par un chroniqueur égyptien. Il faut dire que dans l'Égypte multiconfessionnelle, cet épisode n'avait rien d'exceptionnel. Les discussions entre le sultan et les membres des communautés juives et chrétiennes étaient courantes et Al-Kâmil débattait de sujets religieux, philosophiques, scientifiques avec de nombreux correspondants étrangers. Cette rencontre revêt aujourd'hui un grand intérêt. À l'heure où tant d'intégrismes s'affrontent le rayonnement d'un François d'Assise répandant la paix et la fraternité est plus que jamais d'actualité.

Recherche scientifique et crise de la rationalité Jean-Marc Ela, 2007-03-01 Pour mieux saisir les enjeux de l'intelligence qui s'imposent à l'Afrique dans la dynamique actuelle des savoirs, il convient de cerner les crises de la rationalité dans l'évolution historique. Dans ce but, l'auteur attire l'attention sur les attitudes et les comportements, les mythes et les croyances par lesquelles la société entoure la science alors qu'ils sont incompatibles avec les exigences et les contraintes de l'activité scientifique.
