Warfare Acidic Prayers Jeffrey Okaekwu,2021-04-08 Some situations will always remain as they are until one comes to the point of saying Enough is Enough and applying the radical approach to see that it ends. Many things are designed and orchestrated in the spiritual realm before manifestation in the physical realm. Some wickedness is carried out in the spirit realm by midnight when many are sleeping and what they do is to evoke one's spirit can calling it three times to appear in their coven where they project evil deposits or manipulate their blessings not to get to the person. This is the reason why some see themselves eating in the dream, having sex in the dream, or experiencing abject lack caused by depositing evil money in the life of the person in the dream. These prayers were written from a war room after some days of fasting and meditations to destroy the works of the devil and some agents of darkness operating in the first and second heavens to delay people's blessings, manipulate things, caused many disappointments at the edge of so many breakthroughs and that has put many into continuous lacks in life. So many people have been experiencing some negative occurrences from year to year and this has led them into frustration and depression. These forces operate more when one is at sleep and mostly at midnight. What they do is to command the day to work against people and work as they have programmed it. But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. Matthew 13:25 The language they understand is FIGHT..(Ephesians 6; 12). This is the time to take the battle to their camp, destroy their evil works, set fire on evil altars, and take what belongs to you by force. If you are troubled in the spirit that something is wrong somewhere, then this book will guide you with some radical prayers that will disturb their kingdom and destroy their evil networks against you and your family. War Cries Mark Davidson,2015-09-17 War Cries is the first ever collection of prayers which reflects the faith experiences of Christians within a military context. It comprises 225 formal and informal prayers (from the Army, Navy and RAF, from civilian sources and other nations) which are presented in 7 chapters, each of which exposes a different aspect of military life. The prayers appear in a way that mirrors the military experience, beginning with the act of 'joining-up' and ending with post-conflict reflection. This structuring helps the reader join the recruits - in mind and heart - at the beginning of their military journey, to experience the frustration of training, the boredom of life at sea, the formality of the parade ground, the horrors of battle, the traumatic aftermath of war, and ultimately the desire for a meaningful peace. The collection also includes prayers of service families during times of conflict. Compiled by a serving military chaplain. Not intended to glorify military service, deify the dead, or sanitise the horrors of war, but rather to reveal something of the realities of Christian military service. Will help clergy who have had little exposure to military life to provide homilies and prayers for Remembrance Sunday (8 November in 2015) and other civic occasions.

A Prayer Book for Soldiers and Sailors Episcopal Church. Army and Navy Commission, 2019-12-06 A Prayer Book for Soldiers and Sailors, crafted by the Episcopal Church's Army and Navy Commission, emerges as a poignant and spiritual companion for military personnel in times of conflict. The book integrates traditional Anglican liturgy with prayers, hymns, and reflections designed to provide solace, strength, and guidance amid the trials of war. Its literary style balances reverent language with accessibility, ensuring that soldiers and sailors can easily engage with its contents, a crucial need for those facing the uncertainties of battle. Set against the backdrop of the early 20th century, it speaks to a period of heightened military engagement, echoing the theologically loaded yet practical approach characteristic of wartime religious texts. The Episcopal Church's Army and Navy Commission, formed during World War I, aimed to address the spiritual needs of American service members. This context deeply informed the book's creation, as the Commission sought to bridge the gap between faith and the harsh realities of war by providing a spiritual framework that honors both military service and Episcopal tradition. The authors, made up of clergy and laypeople dedicated to supporting the armed forces, understood the critical role of faith in maintaining morale and fostering resilience. This prayer book is highly recommended for both service members and their families as it offers a source of comfort and guidance in challenging times. Its prayers and meditations are not only relevant for military contexts but also serve as a universal testament to humanity's quest for peace and divine support amidst turmoil. By engaging with this text, readers will find a profound connection to the shared experiences of those who have served and continue to serve.
