First Fruits Susan Butler, 2016-01-26 A devotional to help you transform your faith from passive to passionate and your love from self-centered to God-centered as you live in the name of Jesus. For those seeking to develop a relationship with God, or who want to work on the discipline of a daily walk with God, First Fruits offers opportunities for better understanding His heart and why He sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to die for our sins. It allows readers to reflect on how this knowledge can positively impact their lives. First Fruits is full of comfort, challenges, and inspiration for living life God's way. "A gift to the Body for both the strong and the weak. Encouraging, challenging, thought-provoking, wise . . . if you are looking to strengthen your relationship with Jesus, I highly recommend Susan's powerful book to you." —Jeff Young, Minister of Spiritual Development, Prestonwood Baptist Church, Plano, Texas "Read First Fruits daily! Learn from it, live out the scriptural teaching, and you'll see blessed and better days ahead." —Dan Sampson, Sampson Resources, Dallas, Texas

Autumn Rain Billie Cash, 2014-12-30 This book is a message of faith's journey, having a beginning, becoming dependent, being responsible, fruitful and then transforming the landscape through transplanted lives. The metaphor of the garden is carried throughout the book; beginning faith is nurtured by Spring Rain but transforming faith has a harvest, an abundance brought by the Autumn Rain, the rain of Harvest. It is a faith that continues to change the landscape of life. Like her second book, Light Breaking Through, Billie writes in a journalistic free verse style. In looking through the lens of her own life and finding stories of women who triumphed and persevered, Billie shares stories that are up-close and personal. She tells stories of the deep and abiding faith of John and June Cash and others in her family whose lives are a testament to the goodness of God. She challenges women to know, love and serve God; and to finish well.

A Christian Love During A Pandemic Alfreda Gregory, 2024-11-15 Casper walked to the back table where Gree was sitting and just stood staring at her. She didn't immediately see him because she had her back to the door and was looking out the window. But when she turned around and realized that he was there, she said, Hi, little one. Are you supposed to be back here by yourself? He didn't answer her. Instead, he asked her, Where your little boy? She thought, Why on earth would he ask me such an odd question? But she did answer, I don't have a little boy. She had no idea what was about to happen because that little one wasn't finished saying the darndest things. By that time, Dex had come back into the restaurant and noticed three-year-old Casper was at the back table talking to the woman he had seen earlier. He became frantic, and while he quickly paid for the pizzas, he spoke louder than normal and said to his nephews, Go get Casper. He hurried back. People could see he was walking fast and wondered what was happening. As he got closer to the table, suddenly, Casper turned around and said in a loud voice, Boompa her tingle. Everyone in the restaurant started laughing hysterically. Dex went to him and said, What are you doing back here bothering this lady? Aren't you supposed to be with Hamp and Chase? When Casper realized that Dex was upset with him, he began to cry and said, I sowwy, Boompa.

The Ladies' Repository ,1873 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams, a Cincinnati Methodist, who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's

Lady's Companion. Written largely by ministers, this exceptionally well-printed little magazine contained well-written essays of a moral character, plenty of poetry, articles on historical and scientific matters, and book reviews. Among western writers were Alice Cary, who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems, her sister Phoebe Cary, Otway Curry, Moncure D. Conway, and Joshua R. Giddings; and New England contributors included Mrs. Lydia Sigourney, Hannah F. Gould, and Julia C.R Dorr. By 1851, each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates, usually landscapes or portraits. When Davis E. Clark took over the editorship in 1853, the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40,000. Unlike his predecessors, Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family. After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository. The Ladies' Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart. Its essays, sketches, and poems, its good steel engravings, and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own. -- Cf. American periodicals, 1741-1900.
