Handbook of Research on Historical Pandemic Analysis and the Social Implications of COVID-19 Cortijo Ocaña, Antonio, Martines, Vicent, 2021-09-18 The current health situation has been described as chaotic and devastating. Humanity's trust in the future and in its human capacity to overcome a disaster of such magnitude is even starting to wither away. If science still lacks a response to the pandemic, can the humanities offer something to cope with this situation? The world can adopt a historical perspective and realize that this is not the first time a global pandemic has struck. Issues including illness, suffering, endurance, resilience, human survival, etc. have been dealt with by literature, philosophy, psychology, and sociology throughout the ages and should be explored once again in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Handbook of Research on Historical Pandemic Analysis and the Social Implications of COVID-19 explores the issue of disease from a variety of philosophical, legal, historical, and social perspectives to offer both comprehension and consolation to the human psyche. This group of scholars within the fields of education, psychology, linguistics, history, and philosophy provides a comprehensive view of the humanities as it relates to the pandemic within the frame of human reaction to pain and calamity. This book also looks at the impact the COVID-19 pandemic has had on society in a multidisciplinary capacity that examines its effects in education, government, business, and more. Covering topics such as public health legislation, sociology, impacts on women, and population genetics, this book is essential for sociologists, psychologists, communications experts, historians, researchers, students, and academicians.

La regina e i suoi amanti Giorgio Cimbrico, 2010-07-10 Un titolo elisabettiano (ne ebbe di amanti la Regina Vergine) per un tentativo di rotta, di circumnavigazione di un mondo così tondo da prevedere ogni tipo di situazioni, ogni gioco di contrasti: la gloria e la vergogna, l'arroganza e l'umiltà, il martirio e la gioia de vivre, l'ascesa e la caduta, il miracolo offerto da chi è stato toccato dal demone e i risultati frutto di umanissimi sforzi. Più che una storia ordinata dell'atletica, Regina di tutti gli sport, il libro di Giorgio Cimbrico propone momenti, ricordi - di riporto e diretti -, profili di belli e dannati, capaci di lasciare il segno nello sport che li accomuna e li anticipa tutti nel repertorio delle attitudini e dei gesti, nel desiderio del confronto, nelle motivazioni che germogliano. Così, l'atletica, più che regina, diviene la smisurata strada maestra che percorre l'India: invita a percorrerla, per percorrerla dentro.

Friends and Foes Volume II Elisabetta Viggiani, Graeme Watson, 2010-02-19 The product of an international, multidisciplinary conference at Queen's University Belfast, the two-volume Friends and Foes series offers an illuminating investigation of the relationship between friendship and conflict by established and emerging scholars. This second volume explores the topic from political, sociological and psychological perspectives. Many of these essays examine what types of friendships are forged, and how, in contexts of potential, or actual, social and political conflict, such as in Northern Ireland during the Troubles. Others focus on how situations of conflict can be transformed into friendship, using insights from psychology, philosophy, history and anthropology. The papers in this volume will appeal to sociologists, political scientists, and all those concerned with themes of conflict resolution, identity, social capital, community-building and well-being.

Contemporary Global Perspectives on Cooperative Learning Robyn M. Gillies, Barbara Millis, Neil Davidson, 2023-03-29 This volume captures contemporary global developments in cooperative learning (CL) across varied educational contexts, levels, and disciplines. Cooperative learning is widely recognized as a pedagogical practice that promotes socialization and learning among students, from kindergarten to tertiary education and across different subject domains. With chapters from contributors throughout the Global North and South, this comprehensive volume offers a wide-ranging perspective and addresses a range of cooperative learning pedagogies including relational, online, and peer learning, STAD, the Jigsaw model, and dialogic talk. The chapters draw on novel empirical research and theory to highlight best practices in cooperative learning, whilst also considering the challenges, limitations, and factors which drive or inhibit learner engagement and success. Consistent attention is given to the pivotal role of the educator in implementing cooperative learning to maximum benefit to enhance students' affective, social, cognitive, and metacognitive learning. Thus, this book will appeal to scholars and researchers across a variety of subjects; and will provide an additional benefit to in-service and pre-service educators who already practice cooperative learning in their classrooms, as well as those who are interested in implementing the model.

Measuring Wellbeing Giovanni Vecchi, 2017-01-13 In 150 years Italy transformed itself from a poor and backward country into one where living standards are among the highest in the world. In Measuring Wellbeing, Giovanni Vecchi provides an innovative analysis of this change by drawing on family accounts that provide engaging insights into life and are the micro data that create the foundations for the macro picture of variations and fluctuations in the development of Italy. Vecchi provides a nuanced account of the changes. He emphasizes that the concept of wellbeing is multidimensional and must include non-monetary aspects of life: nutrition, health and education, as well as less tangible elements such as freedom or the possibility to exercise one's political rights. The book deals with this polyhedral nature of wellbeing. Among the insights are that Italians succeeded in combining growth with equity, but that the gap between the North and South did not narrow; the while longevity has increased, education has not improved as much as it could have; and that for close to three decades, Italy's virtuous path has come to a halt: the wellbeing of the Italian people is at the crossroads between progress and decline. Measuring Wellbeing engagingly combines a unique dataset and an innovative statistical method that can be adapted to other countries.

Alfabeto maggiore Francesco Florenzano, 2024-05-31T00:00:00+02:00 Alfabeto maggiore è la necessità di imparare cose nuove per non rimanere indietro (visti i repentini cambiamenti dovuti alla tecnologia). Inoltre, è anche l'arma per combattere la perdita del sapere, dovuto ad uno stato confusionale per la grande mole di informazioni disponibili, all'interno delle quali le fake news la fanno da padrona. Questo libro è il frutto di oltre 30 anni di lavoro sul campo da parte dell'autore che mette a fuoco l'esperienza di don Milani con la scuola di Barbiana e quella di Alberto Manzi (non è mai troppo tardi) riprendendo tutti gli spunti di riflessione di Antonio Gramsci, sulle 150 ore, sulla necessità di una vera e propria manutenzione del sapere.

Un paese ci vuole Silvia Truzzi, 2015-05-14T00:00:00+02:00 Cesare Pavese scriveva che «Un paese vuol dire non essere soli». Ma nella velocità dei cambiamenti, sociali e politici, nel frastuono della comunicazione incessante, non è facile trovare punti di riferimento che ci facciano sentire felicemente parte di un Paese. Allenare la memoria non è un esercizio comune: Silvia Truzzi ha incontrato per Il Fatto quotidiano sedici italiani con i capelli bianchi, che in queste pagine raccontando se stessi ci parlano del passato e del futuro dell'Italia, di impegno e politica, di quel che ci manca e di quello che, con negligente disattenzione, abbiamo perso. O che abbiamo dimenticato, magari per comodità. Viene così alla luce un ricchissimo patrimonio di cultura, saggezza e umanità che non può essere liquidato con il detestabile slogan della «rottamazione». Sedici grandi voci hanno ancora qualcosa di molto importante da dirci: Andrea Camilleri, Luciana Castellina, Guido Ceronetti, Pietro Citati, Gherardo Colombo, Massimo Fini, Vittorio Gregotti, Claudio Magris, Dacia Maraini, Piergaetano Marchetti, Piero Ottone, Giampaolo Pansa, Stefano Rodotà, Giovanni Sartori, Emanuele Severino, Gustavo Zagrebelsky.
