Illuminating Sermons Carlos E. Wilton, 2025-09-09 Good sermon illustrations are among a preacher's greatest needs. However, Carlos E. Wilton argues that where to find good illustrations is the wrong question. In Illuminating Sermons, Wilton offers practical wisdom about how preachers can curate their own materials that extend beyond sermon illustrations.

Sermon Science Gregory J. Cizek, 2025-04-08 Sermon Science brings to bear research and key principles of learning to the development and delivery of sermons. This book provides all pastors, preachers, Sunday school teachers, and Bible study leaders with practical applications from the field of instructional design to move those hearing a sermon from mere listening to learning. Ultimately, the insights gained from Sermon Science will aid sermon listeners to more effectively recall, retain, and apply what they have heard. Not a "how-to" book or list of prescriptions, Sermon Science is a foundational resource for anyone interested in simple elements that can be incorporated to increase sermon impact.

Revivals Visitations And Moves Of God, 2021-07-01 Revival is bringing something that is dead back to life. Much of today's Church needs reviving. When God comes in an unusual way, releasing His presence and power over and above what a church normally experiences, we call it a visitation of God. Every visitation of God should become a habitation of God and become a move of God, going beyond that local church into the community, city, and nation. The move of God results in evangelization, missions, and the fulfilling of the Great Commission. Starting in the book of Acts and down through the centuries, there have been numerous visitations and moves of God. We look at Church history. Understanding history helps us correctly interpret the present and prepare for the future. We draw inspiration, insight, and lessons from what God has done in the past, by reviewing stories, and asking relevant questions: What can we learn from Church history about revivals, visitations, and moves of God? What does it take for a visitation of God to become a move of God? What are signs of a genuine visitation of God? How do we steward a revival, a visitation, and a move of God? The "latter rain" falls just before harvest. "Therefore, be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain. You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand" (James 5:7-8). In biblical context, the early rains were showers that usually came during October-November and prepared the ground for the seed. The latter rain fell during March-April and was necessary for the ripening of the crops before harvest. If we believe God is preparing for a mighty endtime outpouring, a great visitation, and ingathering of harvest before His return, then we must get ourselves and our congregations ready for the latter rain of the Holy Spirit. The Elephant Gospel Deborah Ann Saint, 2017-01-16 The Gospel is more powerful, more redeeming, and greater than we live. I have been deeper in sin than most, like Paul, the woman at the well, and Peter after his denial. I have missed God, lived as an outcast sinner, and denied Gods presence and power in my life. Yet God has shown me His New Covenant of hope, the secret of hope I live by and love. If you or someone you love has an ugly, seemingly unforgivable past like mine, you too can know by evidence from the Bible that you can be forgiven. You can learn to live forgiven, with a clear conscience. The relief from all guilt and shame is a pivotal gift of the Gospel that we get the privilege of offering in turn to others! Are you or someone you care about down-trodden? Forgotten? Guilt-ridden? This book is for you. If youve had an abortion; if youre gender questioning; if youve been abused or addicted, its for you. It is for those society has given up on; its for the worst of us and the best of us. Its for those who think they are good enough and not sinners. All people everywhere can turn, look at Christs love, receive His forgiveness and know His salvation. He forgives murder His grace changes everything! Uniquely conveying truths through a series of four elephant parables, this book seeks to reveal the magnitude of what is at stake when we live true to the real Gospel, and what happens when we understand and herald the Gospel in the power Christ entrusted to us. May we use it for His glory, to advance His kingdom; for He came to save, not condemn.

Overcomers' Guide to The Kingdom James Harman, 2015-05-28 Get ready to climb back up the Mountain to listen to Christ's teachings once again. Though you may have read this great Sermon many times, discover exciting promises that many have missed. The purpose of this book is to help Christians be the Overcomers Jesus wants them to be and to help them gain their own entrance in the coming Kingdom. Learn what seeking the Kingdom of God is all about and be among the chosen few who will enter into the coming Kingdom. Whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house upon the rock. (Mat. 7:24) Also learn about: * The link between Beatitudes and Fruit of the Spirit * What the law of Christ really is * The critical importance of the Lord's prayer * How to be an Overcomer * THE SIGN of Christ's soon Coming * A new song entitled: LOOKING FOR THE SON which has the message of how vitally important it is to be Watching for the Lord's return and the consequences to those who are not looking.

Sermons for the People Frederic Dan Huntington,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1856 edition. Excerpt: ... SERMON XX. THE SOUL'S DEPENDENCE ON CHRIST, AND VICTORY BY HIM.* WITHOUT ME YE CAN DO NOTHING. -- John xV. 5. I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHICH STRENGTHENETH ME. -- Phil. iv. 13. In the two members of this double text are affirmations of both the weakness and the power belonging to us. Without me ye can do nothing, from the lips of the Redeemer, signifies our complete dependence. I can do all things through Christ strengthening me, the exulting claim of an Apostle, exposes the breadth of our .liberty. And inasmuch as they who can do all things ought to do greatly, this sinless boast of Paul challenges us with a grand ideal. It utters a stimulating call to our spiritual energies. In this twofold bearing, the text is only true to the profound facts of our nature and our position. We are -- experience and analysis equally confirm it -- we are both weak and strong, both dependent and free. Our probation is balanced between these conflicting conditions. * Preached before the Autumnal Convention at Worcester, Mass., October 20, 1853. There precisely is the problem we are to work out, and there is the sharp strain of our discipline. God knew that just these conditions were the most fruitful for producing. moral maturity. Looking at our duty from one side, it would seem as if all we have to do is to put forth our moral energies, --to act. Looking at it from another side, it would seem as if our chief business is to appreciate what Christ does for us, -- to realize that we belong to him. To learn how to adjust these elements, -- how to combine and manage both our large birthright of freewill and its humbling limitations, -- how to use our ability nobly, and at the same time to draw the grace of submission out of our insignificance, ...

Gospel Sermons As Delivered by the Great Preacher Rev. Sam. P. Jones Sam Porter Jones, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1898 edition. Excerpt: ... This minister hurried to the front as fast as the trains could carry him to the battle-fields of Virginia. When he reached Virginia he found his brother was wounded sure enough fatally. He was in a country home, and he made haste to the place, and when he walked into the room where his suffering brother was lying he went up to the bed and took his hand. He saw immediately that death was doing its work, and he said: Brother, I am so glad to get here before your death. Brother, I am so anxious about your soul. You have been a wicked man all your life; I have prayed for you, and talked with you many a time. Now, brother, brother, will you right here surrender your heart to God? Oh, said the wounded man, brother, do not talk to me about my soul. I have thrown away all my health and vigorous days and despised God and religion, and now I can do nothing with every fiber of my body burning and aching. Oh, brother, I can not talk with you now about religion. The next day the brother tried his best to approach him again, but the wounded brother waved him off, and said: Brother, I am tortured to death with physical pain. Please, sir, do not trouble me now. I am unprepared and shall die unprepared, but do not torture me more than I am being tortured. He could not approach him. It was the sixth night this preacher brother had sat by his brother's bedside. Loss of sleep and exhaustion and anxiety had reduced him so much and worried him so that as the wounded brother was lying quietly that night about 12 o'clock he said to himself, I will lie down on the cot and rest for a few moments. I won't go to sleep. I see brother is very low. And he said, I lay down on the cot and in a moment almost was sound asleep. AS iWTCI BREAIL Aml while...

The Great Sermons of the Great Preachers, Ancient and Modern Great Sermons, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1858 edition. Excerpt: ... Nevertheless, the character of this ethninput father, both as a man and a writer, has often been misrepresented. Perhaps all who are sufficiently familiar with him to form an intelligent estimate, will agree in the opinion that at least he possessed many great and shining qualities; a sublime genius, an ardent love of the truth and an unflinching determination to defend it, invincible patience, a subtle and lively wit, and sincere piety, The following is one pf his homilies on $he New Testament. THE RECOVERING OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND. Have mercy on ns, 0 Lord, tkou Son of David.--Matt. Xx. 30, 81. I. Ye know, holy brethren, full well as we do, that our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is the Physician of our eternal health; and that to this end He took the weakness of our natures, that our weakness might not last for ever, For He assumed a mortal body, wherein to kill death. And, though He was crucified through weakness, as the Apostle saith, yet He liveth by the power of God. They are the wor4s, too, of the same Apostle; He dieth no more, and death shall have no more dominion over Him. These things, I say, are well known to your faith. And there is also this which follows from it, that we should know that all the miracles which He did on the body, avail to our instruction, that we may from them perceive that which is not to pass away, nor to have any end. He restored to the blind those eyes which death was sure some time to close; He raised Lazarus to life who was to die again. And whatever He did for the health of men's bodies, He did it not to this end, that they should be for ever; whereas, at the last, He will give eternal health even to the body itself. But because those things which were not seen were not believed, by means of...
