An Historical Geography of Modern Australia Joseph Michael Powell, 1991-04-04 This is a substantial study immediately established itself as essential reading for all those with a serious interest in Australian studies.

A History of the Book in Australia, 1891-1945 Martyn Lyons, John Arnold, 2001 Collection of essays and case studies outlining Australian book production and consumption, from the 1880s to the end of World War II. Explores all aspects of print culture including authorship, editing, design and printing, publication, distribution, bookselling, libraries and reading habits. Includes photos, contributor notes, bibliography and index. Two further books in the 'A History of the Book in Australia' project are planned. Lyons is Professor of History at the University of New South Wales. He has previously written (with Lucy Taksa) 'Australian Readers Remember'. Arnold is Deputy Director of the National Centre for Australian Studies, Monash University. He has previously co-edited the 'Biography of Australian Literature: A-E'.

A History of Irish Emigrant and Missionary Education Daniel Murphy, 2000 Underlines the contribution that Irish emigrants and missionaries made to education around the world and examines their legacy to the countries in which they settled from the sixth to the twentieth century. Describes Irish education's assimilation of druidic, bardic, and classical influences combined with a monastic culture, then describes movements and trends in Irish education in Europe, America, Canada, and Australasia, and discusses Irish missionary education in South America, Asia, and Africa. Murphy was lecturer in education and a fellow of Trinity College, Dublin. Distributed by ISBS. c. Book News Inc.
