

An Awfully Big Adventure Shawna Woodland

Shawna Woodland

Awfully Big Adventure Shawna Woodland, 2022 Dreams came to Molly on glittering wings, between fairytale stories and the wonders of her imagination. But as she grew up, those dream-filled days were slowly forgotten. At age eighteen, in Edwardian England, Molly fears she has grown dull. Now, what feels like a perilous decision weighs heavily on her shoulders. With only a small window of time to sort out her future, Molly turns to her past. Coming to terms with the fact that she grew up too fast for her own good, she decides it's time to become the person her younger self had always dreamt of being. It's not easy, especially around Desmond and his clumsy smile that feels like an adventure all of its own. And when Molly discovers that her sister, Victoria, has been pulling strings behind everyone's back, it isn't long before she is hooked into schemes involving George, a gentleman whose mysterious past is filled with limitless stories. Lurking beneath it all, are family secrets; ones powerful enough to draw everyone together... Or dreadful enough to tear them apart completely.
