

The Intentional Dumbing Down Of America

E Durkheim

The Deliberate Dumbing Down of America Charlotte Thomson Iserbyt, 1999 In this book you will discover how good teachers across America have been forced to use controversial, non-academic methodology in their classrooms; how school choice is being used to further dangerous reform goals, and how home schooling and private education are especially vulnerable; how workforce training (school-to-work) is an essential part of an overall plan for a global economy, and how this plan will shortcircuit your child's future career plans and opportunities; [and] how the international, national, regional, state and local agendas for education reform are all interconnected and have been for decades. The deliberate dumbing down of America is a chronological history of the past 100+ years of education reform. Each chapter takes a period of history and recounts the significant events, including important geopolitical and societal contextual information. Citations from government plans, policy documents, and key writings by leading reformers record the rise of the modern education reform movement--Website: <http://www.deliberatedumbingdown.com/book.htm>.

Hello New America, Western Civilization, and This Insane Planet Earth! Frank Belcher,2015-06-11 The author applies very basic animal science principles to humans as an explanation of how and why we do what we do and react to as animals ourselves. In reading this, you may come to understand more about basic greed and how it affects our lives throughout the world. Human behavior is indeed animal behavior, sometimes disguised and sometimes not. This story is the authors perception in simple terms of what is becoming of the United States of America.

The Ladder Project Bill Scott,2022-10-11 We may never know the origin of the COVID-19 pandemic, how it came to be, or who if anyone was responsible. One individual's guess is as good as anyone else's. We can be assured of this. Life itself has been at war with unseen enemies for millions, if not billions of years, as evidenced by living beings constantly evolving from one state to another to survive. If not for evolution, man would have been erased from the Earth ages ago. And as such, deceit may be our greatest weapon. It is unthinkable that one nation has not thought of using evolution to gain power. The Ladder Project is a fictitious novel based on imagination and current events. But one thing is clear. Covid-19 is merely a glimpse of what may be our future.

When Will We Learn? Robert Barr,2022-08-16 "When will We Learn?" poignantly points out the advantages that modern civilizations could have had if mistakes and corrections from ancient civilizations were heeded. Our current humanitarian progress should be far ahead of standing starvations, impoverishments, wars, territorial greed, and tyrannical control of humans in subservient environments.

America's Systemic Psychosis Jack L. Richardson, IV, JD,2024-07-23 The country is in chaos. Everywhere you look, it seems America has lost its collective mind. This mass formation psychosis has disconnected the public from the truth and each other. Anxiety is a pandemic, and few have little faith in any of our institutions, not knowing what to believe. Our constitutional protections as citizens are under attack. The situation we find ourselves in is not a result of a miscalculation but a planned deconstruction of the country by our enemies. This attack has been largely carried out with weapons of misinformation and disinformation from the media, our government, social media, and nongovernmental organizations. The citizenry of this country must regain a natural skepticism and question everything, resisting the temptation to trust the government to do everything for us. We must restore our mental autonomy and ability to think for ourselves instead of being told what to think. America's Systemic Psychosis provides the diagnosis of our problem, explains how the current psychosis and disconnect from the truth has come to pass, and the steps we all need to take to get our minds back, finding sanity and stability once again.

None of the Above Joseph Farah, 2008 The choices put before us this year by the two major parties make George Bush look like George Washington by comparison ndash; especially with regard to the Constitution. It is because of my strong belief in the Constitution that I am urging Americans this year not to vote for either major-party candidate ndash; because neither Barack Obama nor John McCain understand, appreciate and revere the charter that serves as the very basis for our unique form of government. It's time for a real protest against a broken and corrupt American political system. It's not a time for choosing the lesser of two evils. That won't fix our country's leadership crisis. It's time for resistance. It's time for rebellion. It's time for radicalism. It's time to start saying no to the bad choices we are being handed by the system. It's time to change from compliance to government to a spirit of obedience to higher to God and the Constitution that limits the authority of government. And it's time to translate this into the political arena.

Matrix of Power Jordan Maxwell, 2000-05 Who really runs the world? Who controls the money, the politics, and almost every facet of life without you knowing a thing about it? Is such a thing possible? Maxwell grew up in a family that had high-ranking insiders in international politics and religion, so had access to information that few people could imagine. He continued with a lifetime of investigation and is now considered the world's foremost authority on ancient religions and modern conspiracies. He has appeared on three CBS television specials and countless radio shows. His work on the true meaning of symbols in politics, religion, and major corporations is also covered in this highly illustrated book. Explore this fascinating subject with a man who has devoted a lifetime of study to uncovering our hidden masters.

Economic Warfare Ziad K. Abdelnour, 2011-11-21 New insights for investors and business people looking to create wealth in the turbulent post-crisis world In a no holds barred expose of the 2008 financial meltdown from the inside, Ziad K. Abdelnour argues that the political and financial elites have done nothing to fix the structural problems and instead have worsened the situation. By creating more market bubbles, they are actually waging a war on the most productive members of society. For investors, business people, and entrepreneurs that need to navigate the troubled geopolitical waters of the post-crisis world, Abdelnour offers several solutions, including looking at the world anew and understanding that the federal government's primary objective is to promote the creation of an environment conducive to the creation of wealth not job creation, not bailouts, not subsidies, not expansion of the federal bureaucracy, and not providing lifetime support to those who choose not to take advantage of the innumerable opportunities that exist in this nation for them to create a better, more productive life for themselves. Written for investors that need to navigate the troubled geopolitical waters of the post-crisis world · Offers out of the box investment tactics and strategies to outsmart the system · Describes political and business solutions that anyone can engage in to restore freedom and prosperity The author is President and CEO of Blackhawk Partners, Inc., a private family office that has two major lines of business, private equity investments and advisory services, and physical commodities trading Compelling and persuasive, Economic Warfare reveals that wealth can be created in the new, post-crisis world, but investors need to understand that the rules of the game have changed.

Public Education and Our Government Schools Scot MacDonald, 2011-07 Public Education and our Government Schools is a journey through all of the grades in the public school system, culminating in the reasons why children are not learning and are having a difficult time competing academically with Third World children. Author Scot MacDonald provides his insight based on his experiences working in the California public school system as a teacher for more than thirty years. In addition, he was in private practice diagnosing learning problems of young children and correcting them. He is a California credentialed teacher and is a credentialed Educational Psychologist. He always had an interest in learning problems at an early age, and has used his expertise to craft an insightful look at the state of public education in America.

Feet of Clay Joseph R. Trudel, 2008-05-28 The year is 2014. America is no longer the industrial or the military dynamo that it had previously been. Inside its own borders, minor disputes over national issues are accelerating beyond the comprehension and management of both the American public and among its political leaders. In the fog of distance, a phantom cargo ship drifts hauntingly alone on the Pacific Ocean. Its crew mysteriously murdered by someone... or something... that's too horrible to explain... too eerie to reveal its forbidden truth. Some six thousand miles away, covert activities and treasonous acts against the United States now send rippling consequences that will soon be felt throughout the entire world. America itself will not be left untouched, for it is this country that will now strain and struggle against itself as it attempts to elude the coming Armageddon that will inevitably test its will, its spirit, and even its founding principles, towards remaining the true leader of the free world. Yet, another era in history is quickly emerging. And with it a new nation's leadership that truly believes that its time has come. Its iron-will belief system is so strong, that its success will ultimately come not from its own military might, but rather from an unraveling of the international stage towards a veiled co-existence. Against this background, a sinister plan for a nuclear holocaust has been conceived. Its chief architect is not a person of self-control, but rather a psychopathic madman intent on becoming the most powerful and feared individual of all time. His weapon of choice is neither guns nor direct threats, but rather the devil's very own deception of coy innocence. Anarchy in America.... Armageddon's arrival.... Ascension of a Dark Horse nation the end of days.... is about to begin.

The Living Church, 1997

The Dumbing Down of America Glen L. Murray, 2009-04 The book is simply a compilation of the Author's opinions regarding those who are undermining this great Nation. Criticisms of individuals and events with a few expletives thrown in for emphasis. The author does not claim to be overly intelligent but recognizes Dumb when he sees it. Simply written, to the point, no holds barred, but more importantly, honest and sincere; if a bit crude.
