Instrumentos financieros Martha Liliana Arias Bello, Juan Carlos Bohórquez Cifuentes, 2021-07-23 El libro contiene como propósito el estudio de los instrumentos financieros de manera interdisciplinaria, desde la perspectiva de la gestión y la preparación de la información financiera. La comprensión del entorno económico, estratégico y financiero de las empresas es una condición clave para un ejercicio profesional asertivo y de generación de valor. En este sentido, el libro busca seguir los planteamientos metodológicos del Pathways Vision Model de la American Accounting Association. De esta manera, se orienta el entendimiento de los instrumentos financieros en los procesos de formación de los contadores públicos, administradores y carreras afines, dada la complejidad de estos y el papel que desempeñan en la gestión de las empresas.

Alegría Randy Alcorn, 2016 Se supone que nosotros los cristianos debemos de ser seres humanos felices. De hecho, estamos supuestos a radiar gozo, paz y un contentamiento tan inconfundible y tan atractivo, que naturalmente el deseo de otras personas sea el acercarse a nosotros con la necesidad de poseer lo que nosotros tenemos. Sin embargo, en nuestra cultura actual, la mayoría de los cristianos, son percibidos como personas de ira y juicio hacia otras personas con la falta evidente de gozo y alegría en sus vidas. ¿Por qué entonces no son alegres? Nosotros tenemos la certeza de que experimentaremos un gozo inimaginable y una inmensa alegría en el Cielo, pero entonces, ¿por qué no podríamos experimentar esta misma alegría y gozo aquí en la tierra también? En este libro, Alegría, el reconocido teólogo Randy Alcorn disipa siglos de conceptos erróneos acerca de la felicidad y la alegría que experimentamos, comprobando de manera concreta que Dios no solamente desea que la gente que le conoce personalmente sean felices, sino que Él nos manda a serlo. Este es uno de los estudios más conclusivos acerca del tema de la felicidad hasta la fecha, convirtiéndose en un libro que promete cambiar los paradigmas de tal forma que servirá como un gran llamado de atención para la Iglesia y todos los cristianos alrededor del mundo. Christians are supposed to be happy. In fact, we are supposed to radiate joy, peace, and contentment that is so unmistakable and so attractive that others are naturally drawn to us because they want what we have. And yet, in today's culture, the vast majority of Christians are perceived as angry, judgmental people who don't seem to derive any joy from life whatsoever. So why aren't we happy? We know that we will experience unimaginable joy and happiness in Heaven, but that doesn't mean we can't also experience joy and happiness here on earth. In Happiness, noted theologian Randy Alcorn dispels centuries of misconceptions about happiness and provides indisputable proof that God not only wants us to be happy, He commands it. The most definitive study on the subject of happiness to date, this book is a paradigm-shifting wake-up call for the church and Christians everywhere.

Power and the Maritime Domain Greg Kennedy, William de Sousa Moreira, 2022-10-28 This book offers a multi-disciplinary and multi-national approach to defining key elements required to define power within the maritime domain. The volume engages with the concept that the maritime domain is a multi-dimensional space embracing oceans, seas, waterways, including all elements of maritime power, related activities, infrastructure, resources and assets. It illustrates the complexity and interconnectivity of the factors that contribute to the appreciation, creation, and application of maritime power. In practical terms, the book highlights that the maritime domain is a continuum that interconnects countries, cultures, politics, economics, trade, environment, knowledge, and technological power globally. Perhaps most importantly, the maritime domain generates power of its own volition, as well as acting as a critical enabler for the creation of other types of nations power: economic, political, military, technological, intelligence and fiscal power, in particular. The book not only brings those various factors to the reader's attention but, in the synthesis, also clarifies the connections between the various elements in creating a greater maritime whole. This book will be of great interest to students of maritime security, strategic studies and International Relations.

Hope, Community, and Visibility among Venezuelan Migrants at the Juárez-El Paso Border Corrie Boudreaux, 2025-02-15 Hope, Community, and Visibility among Venezuelan Migrants at the Juárez-El Paso Border narrates the rise and fall of a migrant camp built by Venezuelans in 2022 in Ciudad Juárez, Mexico, after the Biden administration used the pandemic-era Title 42 order to stop their entry into the United States. Crushed by this sudden change, hundreds of migrants purposefully chose this site at the very edge of the border to create a camp motivated by both the fear of conditions in Mexico and the desire to show strength through their publicly visible presence. Drawing on her own journalistic coverage of the camp, the author shows how migrants grasped and altered the social meaning of the previously vacant space. Their relationship with the border demonstrated its dual nature as both a hard line and a perforated gray area. As they lived in limbo with no path forward and no way to return home, migrants engaged in collective action to maintain the camp and to perform spectacles that would be projected worldwide by professional media workers.
